9B. Explain: At the outset of the COVID-19 pandemic in March 2020, the North Carolina Secretary of Health and Human Services and the State Health Director proposed that the Boards of Pharmacy and Nursing and the Medical Board adopt a COVID-19 Drug Preservation Rule. At that time, there were many drugs with a suspected potential to treat COVID-19. The rule was drafted to ensure that a supply of those drugs also remained available for patients who were prescribed those drugs for other conditions. On August 15, 2022, the declared state of emergency ended in North Carolina. With that change, the North Carolina Secretary of Health and Human Services and the State Health Director have agreed that there is no current need for this rule.
