3 21 NCAC 65 .0301 MINIMUM LEVEL OF EDUCATION AND COMPETENCY FOR LICENSED
4 RECREATIONAL THERAPIST

5 (a) For the purposes of G.S. 90C-27(a), a candidate for licensure as a recreational therapist shall have graduated from 6 an accredited college or university with a baccalaureate degree or higher and with a major or specialization in 7 recreational therapy or therapeutic recreation. The academic major or specialization shall be verified by an official 8 transcript.

9 (b) For the purposes of this Rule, the following terms mean:

10 (1) An "academic major" is defined as a degree in recreational therapy or therapeutic recreation.

11 (2) A "specialization in recreational therapy or therapeutic recreation" is defined as a degree in 12 recreation and leisure studies, or recreation, or health and physical education, or health and human 13 performance with a specialization, also known as an option, emphasis, or concentration, in 14 therapeutic recreation or recreational therapy.

15 (3) An "accredited college or university" is defined as a college or university accredited by an 16 accreditation body recognized by the United States Department of Education or by the Committee
17 on Accreditation of Recreational Therapy Education (CARTE) under the Commission of 18 Accreditation of Allied Health Education (CAAHEP).

19 (c) An academic major or specialization is defined by the following components:

20 (1) Coursework for a degree or specialization in recreational therapy or therapeutic recreation shall 21 reflect six courses, three hours per course in which the title, course description, and course outline
22 reflects recreational therapy or therapeutic recreation content related to the ~~"APIE Process~~ 23 ~~"including Assessment/Evaluation Planning and Implementation and the Advancement of the~~ 24 ~~Profession."~~ "APIE(D) Process". Course titles may include Introduction or Foundations, Assessment, 25 Planning, Implementation, Evaluation, Research, and Advancement of the Profession. Topics that 26 should be addressed in classes should include Ethics, Standards of Practice, ethics, standards of 27 practice, documentation. Recreational Therapy/Therapeutic Recreation coursework offered in North
28 Carolina must be taught by a licensed recreational therapist (LRT) or out of state by a Certified
29 Therapeutic Recreation Specialist [(CTRS)-] (CTRS™) by the National Council of Therapeutic
30 Recreation Certification (NCTRC). For candidates for licensure who have passed the NCTRC
31 examination and were certified by the National Council for Therapeutic Recreation Certification
32 NCTRC as a CTRS™, a therapeutic recreation or recreational therapy content course taught is 33 considered the same as a therapeutic recreation or recreational therapy content course taken.

34 (2) "Supportive coursework" are courses, not including the recreational therapy or therapeutic recreation 35 content courses, that provide knowledge necessary to develop the ability to practice recreational 36 therapy or therapeutic recreation and are required for the major or specialization in recreational 37 therapy or therapeutic recreation. Supportive courses provide knowledge about human development,

1 ~~human functioning, health, health care and human services, illness and disabling conditions- courses.~~

2 Supportive courses for a degree or specialization in recreational therapy or therapeutic recreation
3 shall include three semester hours of anatomy and physiology, three semester hours of abnormal
4 psychology, three semester hours of human growth and development across the lifespan, and nine
5 semester hours in the area of health and human services. Health and human services coursework 6 may include content in the areas of education, ethics, and other supportive courses related to the 7 practice of recreational therapy.

8 (3) In addition to the coursework required in Subparagraphs (c)(1) and (2) of this Rule, a field placement 9 course shall be required for an academic major or specialization in therapeutic recreation or 10 recreational therapy.

11 (A) A "field placement course," sometimes called an "internship course," is a course taken for 12 college or university credit and shall require clinical education in an agency providing 13 therapeutic recreation services to clients. The field placement or internship course shall 14 meet the criteria for a field placement set forth by the NCTRC in the NCTRC Standards 15 publication herein incorporated by reference including any subsequent amendments and 16 editions. A copy of the NCTRC field placement requirements may be obtained at no cost
17 on the ~~National Council for Therapeutic Recreation Certification (NCTRC)~~ NCTRC

20 (B) A "university supervisor" of a field placement course is defined as the university faculty 21 assigned to supervise the student and course from the university. If the university is in 22 North Carolina, [University] university supervisors shall be licensed by the North Carolina
23 Board of Recreational Therapy Licensure (NCBRTL) throughout the entire internship 24 experience.

25 (C) An "agency supervisor" is the recreational therapist or therapeutic recreation specialist, in 26 an agency providing therapeutic recreation or recreational therapy services to patients or 27 clients, assigned to provide clinical supervision to the field placement student from the 28 agency. Supervisors of students completing field placements in North Carolina shall be 29 licensed by the ~~[North Carolina Board of Recreational Therapy Licensure (NCBRTL)]~~
30 NCBRTL throughout the entire internship experience.

31 (D) "Successful performance" in a field placement course is defined as a grade of D or Pass
32 awarded by the university supervisor. "Successful performance from the agency 33 supervisor" is defined by an overall rating of "Achieves Expectations" documented on the 34 Clinical Performance Appraisal and Summary Reference Form, (CPASRF) that may be 35 accessed at the Board's website, www.ncbrtl.org or by contacting the Board. The CPASRF
36 includes the content and performance criteria from the ~~[ATRA SOP]~~ American Therapeutic
37 Recreation Association Standards of Practice (ATRA SOP), as set forth in Rule .0203 of

1 this Chapter. The CPASRF is provided by the Board or at the Board's website
2 www.ncbrtl.org

- 3 (d) Candidates for licensure who have been certified as a [Certified Therapeutic Recreation Specialist, (CTRS™) by 4 the National Council for Therapeutic Recreation Certification (NCTRC)] a CTRS™ by NCTRC since 1990 and
