Hey David,

Thanks for sending these over. The permanent rules look fine, and I'll recommend approval. The temp rule, however, I think needs a final tweak. It's my understanding that the change to the Energy Conservation code was SL 2022-46 Section 26.(a), rather than (b). Can you confirm and fix if necessary?

Thanks!

Good afternoon,

I'm the attorney who reviewed both the permanent and temporary Rules submitted by the Building Code Council for the February 2023 RRC meeting. The RRC will formally review these Rules at its meeting on Thursday, February 16, 2023, at 9:00 a.m. The meeting will be a hybrid of in-person and WebEx attendance, and an evite should be sent to you as we get closer to the meeting. If there are any other representatives from your agency who will want to attend virtually, let me know prior to the meeting, and we will get evites out to them as well.

Please submit the revised Rules and forms to me via email, no later than 5 p.m. on Friday, February 10, 2023.

In the meantime, please do not hesitate to reach out via email with any questions or concerns.

Thanks,

Brian

Subject: Changes to 2018 Fire Code, Plumbing Code, and Residential Code

Hi David and Nathan,

I've been reviewing the rules submitted to RRC by the Building Code Council for this month, and I've discovered some interesting language in the session laws that prompted these changes. Specifically, I'm referring to these rules:

2018 NC Fire Code, Section D107.1 (SL 2021-121, s. 6.(c))
2018 NC Fire Code, Section D107.2 (SL 2021-183, s. 3.(c))
2018 NC Plumbing Code, Table 605.3 Water Service Pipe (SL 2021-121, s. 7.(b), (c), and (d)).
2018 NC Residential Code Table P2906.4 Water Service Pipe (SL 2021-121, s. 7.(b), (c), and (d)).

If you look at the relevant session laws, the BCC is directed to make specific amendments and then is instructed:

"Rules adopted pursuant to this section are not subject to Part 3 of Article 2A of Chapter 150B of the General Statutes. Rules adopted pursuant to this section shall become effective as provided in G.S. 150B-21.3(b1), as though 10 or more written objections had been received as provided in G.S. 150B-21.3(b2)."

Part 3 of Article 2A of Chapter 150B refers to the RRC review process, so the GA is directing that these rule changes are not subject to RRC review. On the other hand, G.S. 150B-21.3(b1) and (b2) are the APA's legislative review provisions. The GA is saying that RRC will not review these rule changes, but that the changes will become effective with a delayed effective date as if RRC had received 10 letters of objection. However, under (b1) and (b2), the exact effective date depends on what the legislature does after the rules are referred for review. If the legislature does nothing, they become effective on the 31st legislative day. If a bill specifically disapproving the rules is introduced, the rules would become effective on the earlier of the date the bill was voted down or the date the legislature adjourns without a vote on the bill.

So, because the Codifier of Rules is responsible for sending rules subject to legislative review to the legislature, I've copied her here. It's my understanding these rules will be included in the next package of rules sent to the legislature, where they may be reviewed following the start of the 2024 short session.

In light of the relevant SL language, I would suggest withdrawing these rules from RRC review, and resubmitting with the proper boxes on the Submission of Permanent Rule forms checked. Box 4 asks whether the Rule is exempt from RRC review and for the applicable authority. Box 5 asks whether the rule is automatically subject to legislative review and again for the applicable authority. That way, these will be properly classified by the Codifier's staff.

To be clear, we're continuing to review 2018 NC Fire Code Sections 510.4.2, 510.5, 510.5.4, and Chapter 80, as well as 2020 Electrical Code Article 100 Definitions. We're also still reviewing the temporary rule submitted, as the session laws there (2022-6 and 2022-46) do not contain the same operative language.

Please let me know if you have further questions or concerns.

Best,
Brian

Subject: Changes to 2018 Fire Code, Plumbing Code, and Residential Code

Hi David and Nathan,

I've been reviewing the rules submitted to RRC by the Building Code Council for this month, and I've discovered some interesting language in the session laws that prompted these changes. Specifically, I'm referring to these rules:

2018 NC Fire Code, Section D107.1 (SL 2021-121, s. 6.(c))
2018 NC Fire Code, Section D107.2 (SL 2021-183, s. 3.(c))
2018 NC Plumbing Code, Table 605.3 Water Service Pipe (SL 2021-121, s. 7.(b), (c), and (d)).
2018 NC Residential Code Table P2906.4 Water Service Pipe (SL 2021-121, s. 7.(b), (c), and (d)).

If you look at the relevant session laws, the BCC is directed to make specific amendments and then is instructed:

"Rules adopted pursuant to this section are not subject to Part 3 of Article 2A of Chapter 150B of the General Statutes. Rules adopted pursuant to this section shall become effective as provided in G.S. 150B-21.3(b1), as though 10 or more written objections had been received as provided in G.S. 150B-21.3(b2)."

Part 3 of Article 2A of Chapter 150B refers to the RRC review process, so the GA is directing that these rule changes are not subject to RRC review. On the other hand, G.S. 150B-21.3(b1) and (b2) are the APA's legislative review provisions. The GA is saying that RRC will not review these rule changes, but that the changes will become effective with a delayed effective date as if RRC had received 10 letters of objection. However, under (b1) and (b2), the exact effective date depends on what the legislature does after the rules are referred for review. If the legislature does nothing, they become effective on the 31st legislative day. If a bill specifically disapproving the rules is introduced, the rules would become effective on the earlier of the date the bill was voted down or the date the legislature adjourns without a vote on the bill.

So, because the Codifier of Rules is responsible for sending rules subject to legislative review to the legislature, I've copied her here. It's my understanding these rules will be included in the next package of rules sent to the legislature, where they may be reviewed following the start of the 2024 short session.

In light of the relevant SL language, I would suggest withdrawing these rules from RRC review, and resubmitting with the proper boxes on the Submission of Permanent Rule forms checked. Box 4 asks whether the Rule is exempt from RRC review and for the applicable authority. Box 5 asks whether the rule is automatically subject to legislative review and again for the applicable authority. That way, these will be properly classified by the Codifier's staff.

To be clear, we're continuing to review 2018 NC Fire Code Sections 510.4.2, 510.5, 510.5.4, and Chapter 80, as well as 2020 Electrical Code Article 100 Definitions. We're also still reviewing the temporary rule submitted, as the session laws there (2022-6 and 2022-46) do not contain the same operative language.

Please let me know if you have further questions or concerns.

Best,
Brian
