Hi Ms. Black,

First, just FYI I'm copying our paralegal, Alex Burgos, which we do on all communications relevant to rules before the Commission. Our communications go up on the agenda for the public to see, in the interests of transparency. I'm also copying Mr. Premakumar since he's the one who signed the forms.

As of today, we've not received any comments in opposition to these rules or letters requesting legislative review. With respect to comments in opposition, the commenter is required by our rules (see 26 NCAC 05 .0100) to send such comments to the agency in the same manner as they were communicated to the Commission (i.e. if they email us, they need to email you as well). So you should receive a copy of any comments we receive. With respect to letters requesting legislative review, generally staff counsel (in this case me) would let you know when and if we receive 10 letters.

Nice to hear from you, and good luck with the new job!

Best,
Brian

Good afternoon,

Hope you are having a good day. I was wondering if there have been objection letters sent in reference to these rules?

I am not sure of the process, having started in June of this year. Will someone reach out to us if there are objection letters, or do I need to contact OAH to find out?

Thank you for all of you assistance!
