INFORMATION ABOUT THE NORTH CAROLINA REGISTER AND ADMINISTRATIVE CODE

NORTH CAROLINA REGISTER

The North Carolina Register is published monthly and contains information relating to agency, executive, legislative and judicial actions required by or affecting Chapter 150B of the General Statutes. All proposed administrative rules and amendments filed under Chapter 150B must be published in the Register. The Register will typically comprise approximately one hundred pages per issue of legal text.

State law requires that a copy of each issue be provided free of charge to each county in the state and to various state officials and institutions. The North Carolina Register is available by yearly subscription at a cost of ninety-five dollars ($95.00) for 12 issues.

Requests for subscription to the North Carolina Register should be directed to the Office of Administrative Hearings, P. O. Drawer 11666, Raleigh, N. C. 27604. Attn: Subscriptions.

ADOPTION, AMENDMENT, AND REPEAL OF RULES

An agency intending to adopt, amend, or repeal a rule must first publish notice of the proposed action in the North Carolina Register. The notice must include a reference to the Statutory Authority for the action; the time and place of the public hearing and a statement of how public comments may be submitted to the agency either at the hearing or otherwise; the text of the proposed rule or amendment; and the proposed effective date.

The Director of the Office of Administrative Hearings has authority to publish a summary, rather than the full text, of any amendment which is considered to be too lengthy. In such case, the full text of the rule containing the proposed amendment will be available for public inspection at the Rules Division of the Office of Administrative Hearings and at the office of the promulgating agency.

Following publication of the proposal in the North Carolina Register, at least 60 days must elapse before the agency may take action on the proposed adoption, amendment or repeal.

When final action is taken, the promulgating agency must file any adopted or amended rule with the Office of Administrative Hearings. If it differs substantially from the proposed form published as part of the public notice, the adopted version will again be published in the North Carolina Register.

A rule, or amended rule, cannot become effective earlier than the first day of the second calendar month after the adoption is filed.

Proposed action on rules may be withdrawn by the promulgating agency at any time before final action is taken by the agency.

TEMPORARY RULES

Under certain conditions of an emergency nature, some agencies may issue temporary rules. A temporary rule becomes effective when adopted and remains in effect for the period specified in the rule or 120 days, whichever is less. An agency adopting a temporary rule must begin normal rule-making procedures on the permanent rule at the same time the temporary rule is adopted.

NORTH CAROLINA ADMINISTRATIVE CODE

The North Carolina Administrative Code (NCAC) is a compilation and index of the administrative rules of 25 state agencies and 38 occupational licensing boards. The NCAC comprises approximately 15,000 letter size, single spaced pages of material of which approximately 35% is changed annually. Compilation and publication of the NCAC is mandated by G.S. 150B-63(b).

The Code is divided into Titles and Chapters. Each state agency is assigned a separate title which is further broken down by chapters. Title 21 is designated for occupational licensing boards.

The NCAC is available in two formats.

- (1) In looseleaf pages at a minimum cost of two dollars and 50 cents ($2.50) for 10 pages or less, plus fifteen cents ($0.15) per each additional page.
- (2) On microfiche. The microfiche edition is revised semi-annually (March and October) and can be purchased for forty dollars ($40.00) per edition. Due to the volume of the Code, the complete copy can only be purchased on microfiche. The NCAC on microfiche is updated monthly by publication of a "List of Rules Affected" which sets out rules filed the previous month, the action taken, and the effective date of the change. This list is published in the North Carolina Register.

Requests for looseleaf pages of rules or the NCAC on microfiche should be directed to the Office of Administrative Hearings.

NOTE

The foregoing is a generalized statement of the procedures to be followed. For specific statutory language, it is suggested that Articles 2 and 5 of Chapter 150B of the General Statutes be examined carefully.

PROPOSED RULES

TITLE 2 - DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Notice is hereby given in accordance with G.S. 150B-12 that the Department of Agriculture intends to adopt regulations cited as 2 NCAC 9L .2000 - CHEMIGATION. The purpose of the proposed regulations is to minimize the risk of pesticide backflow into public water systems, surface water and groundwater by requiring the utilization of antisiphon devices and air gaps whenever land, crops, and/or plants are chemigated.

The proposed effective date of this action is January 1, 1987.

Statutory Authority: G.S. 143-463; 143-466.

The public hearing will be conducted at 1:00 p.m. on August 22, 1986 at Board Room, Agriculture Building, Raleigh, N.C. 27611.

Comment Procedures: Data, opinion, and argument concerning these rules must be submitted to the N.C. Pesticide Board by or on August 22, 1986. Written comments may be mailed directly to Mr. John L. Smith, Secretary, North Carolina Pesticide Board, P.O. Box 27647, Raleigh, N.C. 27611.

SUBCHAPTER 9L - PESTICIDE SECTION

SECTION .2000 - CHEMIGATION

.2001 DEFINITIONS

All specific words or terms used in this Section shall have the same definitions as shown in the North Carolina Pesticide Law of 1971, G.S. 143-460, or unless the context otherwise requires, other definitions shall be:

- (1) Antisiphon Device. Any equipment that prevents the backflow of a pesticide into any water supply or the backflow of water into a pesticide supply. Antisiphon devices include automatic low pressure drain, check valve, flow interrupter, and vacuum relief valve.
- (2) Automatic Low Pressure Drain. A self-activating device to drain that portion of an irrigation pipeline whose contents could potentially enter the water - supply when operation of the irrigation system pumping plant fails or is shut down.

- (3) Check Valve. A device to provide a positive closure of an irrigation pipeline or pesticide injection line that effectively prohibits the flow of pesticide or water in the opposite direction of that desired when operation of the irrigation system pumping plant or pesticide injection unit fails or is shut down.
- (4) Chemigation. Any process whereby pesticides are applied to land, crops, and/or plants utilizing an irrigation system. Some examples are agricultural, nursery, turf, lawn, golf course, and greenhouse sites.
- (5) Chemigation and/or Irrigation Water Supplies. Any source of water that is used for chemigation and/or irrigation to include private wells, public water systems, ground or surface water sources.
- (6) Flow Interrupter. A device that provides positive interruption or cessation of pesticide or water flow in either direction upon pesticide injection unit shutdown or failure.
- (7) Functional Systems lock. A system used to link irrigation pumps and pesticide injection units, other pumps or supply tanks so designed that in the event of irrigation pump malfunction or failure, shutdown of the pesticide injection units will occur.
- (8) Inspection Port. A place on the irrigation pipeline that can be utilized to determine visually if the check valve leaks.
- (9) Irrigation. The act of mechanically supplying water to land, crops and/or plants.
- (10) Irrigation System. Any device or combination of devices having hose, pipe or other conduit which connects directly to any water supply. The term does not include any handheld hose-end sprayer which is constructed so that an interruption in water flow automatically prevents any backflow to the water supply.

(11) Public Water System

(a) a system for the provision to the public of piped water for human consumption if such system has at least 15 service connections or regularly serves an average of at least 25 individuals daily at least 60 days out of the year. Such term includes:

(i) any collection, treatment, storage, and distribution facility under control of the operator of such system and used primarily in connection with such system; and

(ii) any collection or pre-treatment storage facility not under such control which is used primarily in connection with such system.

(b) It is either a "community water system" or a "non-community water system":

(i) Community Water System. A public water system which serves at least 15 service connections or regularly serves at least 25 year-round residents.

(ii) Non-Community Water System. A public water system which is not a community water system.

(12) Vacuum Relief Valve.

A device to automatically relieve or break vacuum in an irrigation pipeline.

.2002 APPLICATION OF PESTICIDES THROUGH IRRIGATION SYSTEMS

(a) These systems shall be fitted with effective antisiphon devices and a functional systems interlock that will prevent the backflow of pesticide or pesticide-water mixtures into water supplies or the backflow of water or pesticide-water mixtures into pesticide supplies during times of irrigation system failure or equipment shutdown. If a public water system is being utilized as the water source, the chemigation system shall not be connected directly to it. See requirements in Rule .2003 of this Section.

(b) Pesticides shall not be injected into an irrigation system on the suction side of the irrigation pump.

(c) Such safety devices or valves shall be installed between (1) the irrigation system pump discharge and the point of pesticide injection into the irrigation system, and (2) the point of pesticide injection into the irrigation system and the pesticide tank or container in accordance with Rule .2002(d).

(d) Such systems shall effectively meet the following criteria:

(1) double check valves shall be located between the irrigation pump discharge and the point of pesticide injection into the irrigation pipeline. These valves, when installed, shall be on a horizontal plane and level. A deviation of not more than 10 degrees from the horizontal shall be set.

(2) an inspection port shall be located between the irrigation pump discharge and the mainline check valves. In many cases, the vacuum relief valve connection can serve as the inspection port.

(3) a vacuum relief valve shall be located on the top of the horizontal irrigation pipeline between the discharge side of the irrigation pump and the inlet side of the double check valves. The vacuum relief valve shall have an orifice size of at least 3/4 inch for a 4-inch diameter irrigation pipe. The orifice size shall increase proportionally to an increase in irrigation pipe diameter.

(4) an automatic low pressure drain shall be located on the bottom of the horizontal irrigation pipeline between the discharge side of the irrigation pump and the inlet side of the double check valves. Such device shall be level and have an orifice size of at least 3/4 inch for a 4-inch diameter irrigation pipe. The orifice size shall increase proportionally to an increase in irrigation pipe diameter. The drain shall not extend beyond the inside surface of the bottom of the irrigation pipeline and shall be at least two inches above grade. The automatic low pressure drain shall discharge at least 20 feet from any water supply. The discharge from the drain shall be controlled to - prevent the drainage from reentering the water supply.

- (5) a flow interrupter device shall be located in the pesticide supply line between the pesticide injection unit and the pesticide supply tank or container. A normally closed solenoid-operated valve or other similar device is an acceptable method to positively prevent flow of pesticide or water in either direction during pesticide injection system failure or shutdown.
 - (6) a check valve shall be located on the pesticide injection line between the point of pesticide injection into the irrigation system and the pesticide injection unit to prevent the overflow of the pesticide supply tank or container.
 - (7) a functional systems interlock shall be provided. If interruption of the irrigation water flow occurs, the interlock must, at a minimum, cause the shutdown of the pesticide injection unit. If the irrigation pump and pesticide injection unit are at different sites, a low pressure cutoff, located near the point of pesticide injection into the irrigation system, could be electrically connected to the pesticide injection unit to provide for its shutdown in the event of low water pressure.

.2003 PROHIBITION OF CONNECTION TO A PUBLIC WATER SYSTEM

- (a) An irrigation system used for pesticide application shall not be connected directly to a public water system.
- (b) The water from a public water system must be discharged into a reservoir tank.
- (c) There shall be a complete physical break (air gap) between the outlet end of the fill pipe and the top or overflow rim of the reservoir tank of at least twice the inside diameter of the fill pipe.

.2004 INSPECTION: INSTALLATION: MAINTENANCE AND MODIFICATIONS

- (a) Antisiphon devices and a functional systems interlock, used for chemigation purposes, shall be installed and maintained to ensure proper function during chemigation.

(b) During periods of chemigation, the system operator shall inspect the antisiphon devices and the functional systems interlock to ensure that they are functioning properly.

(c) If modifications or changes in design, technology, irrigation practices or other similar reasons warrant the use or placement of equipment in lieu of that specified herein, the Pesticide Board may allow for such changes in advance of use, provided protection to the water supply is at least equal to that provided by the equipment, or placement thereof, required in this Regulation.

(d) Inspections of an irrigation system utilized for chemigation may be made at any time by a representative of the Pesticide Section, North Carolina Department of Agriculture. Whenever any such equipment is determined not to be in compliance with this Section, the owner or operator shall be issued a stop use order, and the equipment shall not be used for the purpose of applying pesticide(s) until such time as proper repairs and/or alterations are made and the stop use order is released by official notice from the North Carolina Department of Agriculture.

- (5) supervision after placement,
- (6) fulfillment of social and legal responsibilities,
- (7) compilation and preservation of complete case records,

.0302 SERVICES TO NATURAL PARENTS CONSIDERING ADOPTION (Repealed)

.0303 SERVICES TO THE CHILD CONSIDERED FOR ADOPTION (Repealed)

.0304 SERVICES TO ADOPTIVE APPLICANTS

(a) Study

(1) The agency shall make a pre-placement study of the adoptive home before placing a child in the home. The purposes of the adoptive home study shall be to evaluate the capacity of persons to become parents of an adopted child; to help the applicants determine whether they want a child and if they are ready to adopt; and to decide the kind of child who should be adopted. Further, the study should provide an opportunity for change in applicants' attitudes and expectations as they begin to have a better understanding of what is involved in adoption and the kind of children who are available for placement.

(2) Because agencies have the responsibility of predicting how applicants will care for children, it is important to know the applicants individually, in relation to each other, in relation to their own families, and in relation to the community in which they live.

(3) During the initial interview, it is important that the worker's attitude show acceptance of and respect for the applicants.

(4) Agencies may use a variety of procedures to study an adoptive home, but the goal of each study will be the same. The adoptive home study shall be developed through a succession of interviews with both applicants, separately and together, in their home and in the office.

(b) Record. There shall be a written record of the study, in the case file. When an application has been approved, the record should reflect discussion and evaluation from which the agency concludes that:

(1) All members of the household will welcome a child into the home.

- (2) The adoptive applicants have satisfactory family relationships, social relationships, and work adjustment.
- (3) The adoptive applicants are sufficiently emotionally mature to provide care for the child.
- (4) The adoptive applicants are in good health, as evidenced by medical history and a recent examination including negative blood tests and negative chest x-rays.
- (5) The applicants have a reasonably comfortable adjustment to their sterility, if this is their reason for applying to adopt. A medical statement regarding their inability to have their own child shall be a part of the record.
- (6) The adoptive parents have sufficient income to maintain a desirable standard of living, and can offer the child reasonable economic security.
- (7) The mother will remain at home until the child and parents have become well adjusted to each other. If the mother plans to return to work, the plan of child care must have been carefully evaluated with the applicants.
- (8) The family is one in which the child will have the opportunity for religious or spiritual and ethical development, and will be helped to achieve a scale of values for himself, to build a practical philosophy of life, and to develop moral and social standards which will guide his conduct through life.
- (9) The family recognizes the importance of providing educational opportunities for the child in accordance with his interests, ability, and aptitudes.
- (10) The family recognizes the importance of helping the child to accept his adoptive status.
- (11) The home is in a good community where conditions afford opportunities for suitable companionship and for participation in community activities.
- (c) Decision. The adoptive applicants shall be told by the agency, when the study is completed, whether their application has been accepted or rejected. Especially when their application is rejected, they should be given the opportunity for discussion of the agency's decision.

Rules in 10 NCAC 41P .0006, .0007, .0008, .0009, .0010, .0011, and .0012 shall govern the policies for public agencies providing adoption services in determining the procedures for recruitment of adoptive families, application process, adoptive study, notification to adoptive applicants of acceptance or denial of application, services to adoptive applicants and families, legal process, and record retention.

- .0305 CRITERIA FOR EVALUATING ADOPTIVE APPLICANTS (Repealed)
- .0306 AGENCY REQUIREMENTS FOR APPLICANTS (Repealed)
- .0307 REJECTION OF AN APPLICATION (Repealed)
- .0308 SELECTION OF HOME AND PLACEMENT PROCESS (Repealed)
- .0309 SUPERVISION AFTER PLACEMENT (Repealed)

SUBCHAPTER 8G - PROFESSIONAL ETHICS AND CONDUCT

SECTION .0400 CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION

.0404 APPROVAL OF COURSES AND PROGRAMS CPE PROGRAM STANDARDS

Programs and courses for CPE credit must be in accounting and related subjects.

(1) Standards for program development:

(a) The program should contribute to the professional competence of the participants.

Note: The fundamental purpose of CPE is to increase the CPA's professional competence. A professional person is one characterized as conforming to the technical and ethical standards of his profession. This characterization reflects the expectation that a person holding himself out to perform services of a professional quality needs to be knowledgeable within a broad range of related skills. Thus, the concept of professional competence is to be broadly interpreted. It includes, but is not restricted to, accounting, auditing, taxation, and management advisory services. Accordingly, programs contributing to the development and maintenance of other professional skills also should be recognized as acceptable continuing education programs. Such programs might include, but not be restricted to, the areas of communication, ethics, quantitative methods, behavioral sciences, statistics, and practice management.

(b) The stated program objectives should specify the level of knowledge the participant should have obtained or level of knowledge he should be able to demonstrate upon completing the program.

Note: Program developers should clearly disclose what level of knowledge and/or skill is expected to be mastered by completing a particular program. Such levels may be expressed in a variety of ways, all of which should be informative to potential participants. As an illustration, a program may be described as having the objective of imparting technical knowledge at such levels as basic, intermediate, advanced, or overview, which might be defined as follows:

(1) A basic level program teaches fundamental principles or skills to participants having no prior exposure to the subject area.

(2) An intermediate level program builds on a basic level program in order to relate fundamental principles or skills to practical situations and extend them to a broader range of applications.

(3) An advanced level program teaches participants to deal with complex situations.

(4) An overview program enables participants to develop perspective as to how a subject area relates to the broader aspects of accounting or brings participants up to date on new developments in the subject area.

(c) The education and/or experience prerequisites for the program should be stated.

Note: All programs should clearly identify what prerequisites are necessary for enrollment. If no prerequisite is necessary, a statement to this effect should be made. Prerequisites should be specified in precise language so potential participants can readily ascertain whether they qualify for the program or whether the program is above or below their level of knowledge or skill.

(d) Programs should be developed by individual(s) qualified in the subject matter and in instructional design.

Note: Although both competencies are necessary in developing a program, this standard is not intended to require that any individual program developer be both technically competent and competent in instructional design. "Instructional design" is a plan that specifies the learning objectives of the program, the content of the program, the methods of presentation (such as case studies, lecture, work groups, programmed instruction, use of audio or visual aids, or group participation) and the manner of evaluating, if practical, whether the learning objectives were achieved. Adequacy of technical knowledge or skill in instructional design may be demonstrated by appropriate experience or education. The level of technical competence and instructional design skills that the developer(s) should possess will vary depending on certain characteristics of the program; such as the number of times it will be presented, the length of the program, the complexity of the subject matter, and the number of participants.

(e) Program content should be current.

Note: The program developer must review the course materials periodically to assure that they are accurate and consistent with currently accepted standards relating to the program's subject matter. Between these reviews, errata sheets should be issued where appropriate and obsolete materials should be deleted. However, between the time a new pronouncement is issued and the issuance of errata sheets or removal of obsolete materials, the instructor is responsible for informing participants of changes. If, for example, a new accounting standard is issued, a program will not be considered current unless the ramifications of the new standard have been incorporated into the materials or the instructor appropriately informs the participants of the new standard.

(f) Programs should be reviewed by a qualified person(s) other than the preparer(s) for to ensure compliance with the standards listed in this Rule.

Note: It may be impractical to review certain programs, such as a short lecture given only once; in these cases, more reliance must be placed on the competence of the presenter.

(2) Standards for program presentation:

- (a) Participants should be informed in advance of objectives, prerequisites, experience level, content, advance preparation, teaching methods, and CPE contact hours credit.

Note: In order for potential participants to most effectively plan their CPE, the salient features of any program should be disclosed. Accordingly, brochures or other announcements should be available well in advance of each program and should contain clear statements concerning objectives, prerequisites (if any), experience level, program content, the nature and extent of advance preparation, the teaching method(s) to be used, and the amount of credit to be given.

- (b) Instructors or discussion leaders should be qualified with respect to program content and teaching method used.

Note: The instructor is a key ingredient in the learning process in any group program. Therefore, it is imperative that sponsors exercise great care in selecting qualified instructors for all group programs. A qualified instructor is one who is capable, through background, training, education, and/or experience, of providing an environment conducive to learning. He should be competent in the subject matter and skilled in the use of the appropriate teaching method(s). Although instructors are selected with great care, sponsors should evaluate their performance at the conclusion of each program to determine their suitability for continuing to serve as instructors in the future.

- (c) Program sponsors should encourage participation only by individuals with appropriate educational education and/or experience.

Note: So that participants can expect CPE programs to increase their professional competence, this standard encourages sponsors to urge only those who have the appropriate education and/or experience to participate. The term "education and/or experience" in the standard also implies that participants will be expected to complete any advance preparation. An essential step in encouraging advance preparation is timely distribution of program materials. Although implementing this standard may be difficult, sponsors should make a significant effort to comply with the spirit of the standard by encouraging (1) enrollment only by eligible participants, (2) timely distribution of materials, and (3) completion of any advanced preparation.

- (d) The number of participants and physical facilities should be consistent with the teaching method(s) specified.

Note: The learning environment is affected by the number of participants and by the quality of the physical facilities. Sponsors have an obligation to pay serious attention to these two factors. The maximum number of participants for a case-oriented discussion program, for example, should be considerably less than for a lecture program. The seating arrangement is also very important. For a discussion presentation, learning is enhanced if seating is arranged so that participants can easily see and converse with each other. If small group sessions are an integral part of the program format, appropriate facilities should be available to encourage communication within a small group. In effect, class size, quality of facilities, and seating arrangements are integral and important aspects of the educational environment and should be carefully controlled.

- (e) Programs should include some means of evaluating quality.

Note: Evaluations should be solicited from both participants and instructors. The objective of evaluations is to encourage sponsors to strive for increased program effectiveness. Programs should be evaluated to determine whether:

1. Objectives have been met.
2. Prerequisites are necessary or desirable.
3. Facilities were satisfactory.
4. The instructor was effective.
5. Advance preparation materials were satisfactory.
6. The program content was timely and effective.

Evaluations might take the form of pre-tests for advance preparation, post-tests for effectiveness of the program, questionnaires completed at the end of the program or later, oral feedback to the instructor or sponsor, and so forth. Instructors should be informed of their performance, and sponsors should systematically review the evaluation process to ensure its effectiveness.

(3) Standards for program measurement:

- (a) Courses and programs must have adequate record keeping. Fifty minutes of instruction will be accepted as one hour of course work. College credit course work shall be accepted at the rate of 15 hours for each semester hour and 10 hours for each quarter hour, and college non-credit course work shall be accepted on a basis equivalent to the actual contact hours. Course work in which the student receives Continuing Education Units (CEU) will be allowed one CPE hour for each one-tenth CEU awarded.

Note: The purpose of this standard is to develop uniformity in the measurement of CPE activity. A contact hour is 50 minutes of continuous participation in a group program. Under this standard, credit is granted only for full contact hours. For example, a group program lasting 100 minutes would count for 2 hours; however, one lasting between 50 and 100 minutes would count for only 1 hour. A one-day program consists of 8 contact hours. For continuous conferences and conventions, when individual segments are less than 50 minutes, the sum of the segments should be considered one total program. For example, five 30-minute presentations would equal 150 minutes and should be counted as 3 contact hours.

Sponsors are encouraged to monitor group programs in order to accurately assign the appropriate number of credit hours for participants who arrive late or leave before a program is completed. Since credit is not allowed for preparation time for group programs, it should not be granted for the equivalent time in self-study programs. Self-study programs should be pre-tested to determine average completion time. One-half of the average completion time is the recommended credit to be allowed. For example, a self-study program that takes an average of 800 minutes to complete is recommended for 8 "contact hours" of credit.

- (b) Credit for teaching CPE courses may be granted for up to 3 times the actual teaching time, one time only for a specific course within one year. When an instructor or discussion leader serves at a program for which participants receive CPE credit and at a level that increases his or her professional competence, credit should be given for preparation and presentation time measured in terms of contact hours. Credit may be claimed for a specific course one time only within one calendar year. CPE credit for instructors, speakers and discussion leaders will be limited to one half of the annual requirement.

Note: Instructors and discussion leaders should receive CPE credit for both preparation and presentation. For the first time they present a program, they should receive contact hour credit for actual preparation hours up to 2 times the class contact hours. If a course is rated as 8 contact hours, the instructor could receive up to 24 contact hours of credit (16 hours for preparation and 8 hours for presentation). For repetitious presentations, the instructor should receive no credit unless he can demonstrate that the subject matter involved was changed sufficiently to require significant additional study or research.

In addition, the maximum credit for preparation and presentation should not exceed 50 percent of the total CPE credit an instructor or discussion leader accumulates in a reporting period. For example, if 40 hours of CPE are required yearly, and he actually taught 16 hours and took 30 hours to prepare, the most credit he could claim would be 20 hours.

(c) Formal correspondence or other individual study programs must require registration and provide evidence of satisfactory completion. Participants in self-study programs shall document their participation by registering with the CPE sponsor, and shall obtain from the sponsor evidence of satisfactory completion.

(d) Credit may be allowed for published articles and books provided they contribute to the professional competence of the licensee. Credit for preparation of such publications may be given on a self-declaration basis up to 25 percent of the renewal period requirement. In exceptional circumstances a licensee may request additional credit by submitting the article(s) or book(s) to the board with an explanation of the circumstances which he/she feels justify a greater credit. FINAL RULES

TITLE 15 - NATURAL RESOURCES AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

SUBCHAPTER 1H - RESOLUTION OF SUBMERGED LANDS CLAIMS

SECTION .0100 - INTRODUCTION AND DELEGATIONS

.0101 INTRODUCTION

The Secretary of Natural Resources and Community Development was directed to establish and implement a plan for completion of the resolution of claims filed pursuant to G.S. 113-205 by December 31, 1990. The claims arise in twenty-five coastal counties, which overlap with the counties regulated by the Coastal Area Management Act of 1974. The permit letting procedure under G.S. 113A-100, et seq. and G.S. 113-229 require, among other things, the Division of Coastal Management to evaluate property rights in the waters and lands which were the subject of the claims filed pursuant to G.S. 113-205. The Division of Coastal Management is the department division best able to implement the plan for resolving the claims and is directed to implement the plan.

Individual claims may necessitate variations in the suggested procedures and such variations are authorized as deemed necessary or appropriate. The complete procedure used for each claim shall effectively apply the procedural mechanism unless the claim is resolved prior to completion of the established procedure by a letter of final determination issued by the division. Service of initial notification and final resolution letters shall be evidenced by return receipts or other similar documentation.

.0202 INITIAL REVIEW OF CLAIM
Each claim shall be reviewed to ascertain whether:

- (1) the claim as filed met the minimum standards of G.S. 113-205 by inclusion of the source instrument, the instrument showing the interest of the claimant, and a map illustrating and locating the area;
- (2) the claim was required by or affected lands or rights within the scope of G.S. 113-205; and

(b) The letter of notification shall correspond to the determinations made during the initial review of claims. Claimants will be informed whether the claim is deemed complete or requires additional information. The letter will specifically itemize the additional information necessary to render the claim complete. The division shall allow claimants at least 30 but not more than 90 days to submit all additional required information.

(c) Determination that claims neither were required by nor affected lands and rights subject to G.S. 113-205 shall be included in the letter of notification. Failure by the claimant to provide evidence to the division within 90 days which results in a reversal of the initial determination shall render the claim null and void. If the claimant can show that the determination was in error the division shall apply the additional procedures of this Subchapter.

(d) The tax credit donation program will be described in the letter of notification to each claim for property or rights that may be eligible for the program.

(e) The letter of notification shall clearly inform the claimant if failure to reply in a timely fashion shall result in his claim being declared abandoned or null and void. Failure to supplement claims deemed incomplete shall render the claims null and void for failure to comply with the minimum requirements of G.S. 113-205(a).

(b) By the response, the claimant shall provide the following information:

- (1) whether the claimant continues to assert the claim;
- (2) the identity of grantees to whom the claimant has transferred the claim;
- (3) whether the claimant desires additional information regarding tax credits and other benefits available for donation of the claim to eligible entities;
- (4) such evidence as is necessary to refute the determination, if made, that the claim is not subject to G.S. 113-205; and
- (5) such other additional information as is necessary to evaluate the claim.

(c) The claim shall be declared abandoned if a response is not received by the division within the established 90 day period or if the claimant fails to respond to any of the individual requests for information specified in the letter of notification.

(d) A follow-up request shall be made by the division when the information provided in response to a specific request is incomplete or inadequate to evaluate the claim. (b) If the record holder of title cannot be identified, a public notice shall be printed in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the land is located. Such notice shall refer to the original claimant by name and the location of the area in question and shall allow any party claiming a chain of title to the original claim 30 days to contact the division. If no response is received within the 30 days, the claim shall be declared abandoned.

(d) The division shall incorporate into the letter of inquiry a method for response and allow a minimum time of 30 but not more than 90 days for response.

(e) Subsequent takers of lands claimed pursuant to G.S. 113-205 shall submit documentation to establish an unbroken chain of title from the original claimant.

(f) After subsequent takers meet the additional requirements of this Rule, a letter of notification pursuant to Rule .0203 shall be issued.

(g) The original G.S. 113-205 claim shall be declared abandoned if no response to the letter of inquiry or no requested supporting documentation is received within the established 90 day time following service of the letter or request.

(b) Prior to issuance of a determination adverse to the claim, the division may contact the claimant with proposals for resolution of the claim by easements, donation of claimed areas, or similar conveyances.

(c) Claims that have not been declared abandoned or null and void shall be resolved by the issuance of a final determination that includes a statement of the law respecting review by the courts of the final determination pursuant to G.S. 113-206.

(d) Claimants who failed to respond within the required time to earlier requests for additional information shall be issued a final determination specifying the reason for the determination as provided in the notification sent earlier.

SUBCHAPTER 7H - STATE GUIDE- LINES FOR AREAS OF ENVIRONMENTAL CONCERN

SECTION .0200 - THE ESTUARINE SYSTEM

.0208 USE STANDARDS

(5) Marinas. Marinas

are defined as any publicly or privately owned dock, basin, or wet boat storage facility constructed to accommodate more than 10 boats, and providing any of the following services: permanent or transient docking space; dry storage; fueling facilities, haul-out facilities and repair services.

Excluded from this definition are boat ramp facilities allowing access only, temporary docking and none of the preceding services. Expansion of existing facilities shall also comply with these standards for all development other than maintenance and repair necessary to maintain previous service levels.

(A) Marinas shall be sited in non-wetland areas or in deep waters (areas not requiring dredging) and shall not disturb valuable shallow water, submerged aquatic vegetation, and wetland habitats, except for dredging necessary for access to high-ground sites. The following four alternatives for siting marinas are listed in order of preference for the least damaging alternative; marina projects shall be designed to have the highest of these four priorities that is deemed feasible by the permit letting agency:

- (i) an upland basin site requiring no alteration of wetland or estuarine habitat and providing adequate flushing by tidal or

- wind generated water circulation;
- (ii) an upland basin site requiring dredging for access when the necessary dredging and operation of the marina will not result in the significant degradation of existing fishery, shellfish, or wetland resources and the basin design shall provide adequate flushing by tidal or wind generated water circulation;
- (iii) an open water site located outside a primary nursery area which utilizes piers or docks rather than channels or canals to reach deeper water; and
- (iv) an open water marina requiring excavation of no intertidal habitat, and no dredging greater than the depth of the connecting channel.
- (B) Marinas which require dredging shall not be located in primary nursery areas nor in areas which require dredging through primary nursery areas for access. Maintenance dredging in primary nursery areas for existing marinas will be considered on a case-by-case basis.
- (C) To minimize coverage of public waters by docks and moored vessels, dry storage marinas shall be used where feasible.
- (D) Marinas to be developed in waters subject to public trust rights (other than those created by dredging upland basins or canals) for the purpose of providing docking for residential developments shall be allowed no more than 27 sq. ft. of public trust waters for every one lin. ft. of shoreline adjacent to these public trust waters for construction of docks and mooring facilities. The 27 sq. ft. allocation shall not apply to fairway areas between parallel piers or any portion of the pier used only for access from land to the docking spaces.
- (E) To protect water quality of shellfishing areas marinas shall not be - located within areas documented as a natural shellfish bed or adjacent to such areas if shellfish harvest closure is anticipated to result from the marina operation. A natural shellfish bed is defined in 15 NCAC 3C .0302 as an area of public bottom when ten bushels or more of shellfish per acre are found to be growing. This Rule shall not apply to waters considered by the state to be permanently closed to the taking of shellfish.

- (F) Marinas shall not be located without written consent from the controlling parties in areas of submerged lands which have been leased from the state or deeded by the state.
- (G) Marina basins shall be designed to promote flushing through the following design criteria:
 - (i) the basin and channel depths shall gradually increase toward open water and shall never be deeper than the waters to which they connect; and
 - (ii) when possible, an opening shall be provided at opposite ends of the basin to establish flow-through circulation.
- (H) Marinas shall be designed to minimize adverse effects on navigation and public use of waters while allowing the applicant adequate access to deep waters.
- (I) Marinas shall be located and constructed so as to avoid adverse impacts on navigation throughout all federally maintained channels and their immediate boundaries. This includes mooring sites (permanent or temporary), speed or traffic reductions, or any other device, either physical or regulatory, that may cause a federally maintained channel to be restricted.
- (J) Open water marinas shall be not enclosed within breakwaters that preclude circulation sufficient to maintain water quality.
- (K) Marinas which require dredging shall provide acceptable areas to accommodate disposal needs for future maintenance dredging. Proof of the ability to truck the spoil material from the marina site to an acceptable disposal area will be acceptable.

- (L) Marina design shall comply with all applicable requirements for management of stormwater runoff.
- (M) Marinas shall post a notice prohibiting the discharge of any waste from boat toilets and explaining the availability of information on local pump-out services.
- (N) Boat maintenance areas must be designed so that all scraping, sandblasting, and painting will be done over dry land with adequate containment devices to prevent entry of waste materials into adjacent waters.
- (O) All marinas shall comply with all applicable standards for docks and piers, bulkheading, dredging and spoil disposal.
- (P) All applications for marinas shall be reviewed to determine their potential impact and compliance with applicable standards. Such review shall consider the cumulative impacts of marina development.
- (Q) Replacement of existing marinas to maintain previous service levels shall be allowed provided that the preceeding rules are complied with to the maximum extent possible, with due consideration being given to replacement costs, service needs, etc.
