The employee shall have an opportunity to respond to the proposed dismissal, to refute information supporting the recommended dismissal action and to offer information or arguments in support of the employee's position. Every effort shall be made by the Supervisor or the designated management representative to assure that the employee has had a full opportunity to set forth any available information in opposition to the recommendation to dismiss prior to the end of the conference. This opportunity does not include the right to present witnesses.
 - (f) Following the conference, management shall review and consider the response of the employee and reach a decision on the proposed recommendation. If management's decision is to dismiss the employee, a written letter of dismissal containing the specific reasons for dismissal, the effective date of the dismissal and the employee's appeal rights shall be issued to the employee in person or by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the last known address of the employee. To minimize the risk of dismissal upon erroneous information, and to allow time following the conference for management to review all necessary information, the decision to dismiss should not be communicated to the employee in accordance with this Paragraph, prior to the beginning of the next business day following the conclusion of the pre-dismissal conference or after the end of the second business day following the completion of the pre-dismissal conference.
 - (g) The effective date of a dismissal for unsatisfactory job performance shall be determined by management. A career employee who is dismissed for unsatisfactory job performance may, at management's discretion, be given up to two weeks' working notice of his dismissal. Instead of providing up to two weeks' working notice and at the discretion of management, an employee may be given up to two weeks' pay in lieu of the working notice. Such working notice or pay in lieu of notice is applicable only to dismissals for unsatisfactory job performance. The effective date of the dismissal shall not be earlier than the letter of dismissal nor more than 14 calendar days after the notice of dismissal.

ISAAC LEE FOSTER,)

NORTH CAROLINA ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE) CONTROL COMMISSION,) Respondent.)

RECOMMENDED DECISION

This contested case was heard before Administrative Law Judge Fred G. Morrison, Jr., on December 21, 1995 in New Bern, North Carolina.

APPEARANCES

Petitioner: Isaac Lee Foster, Pro Se

Respondent: Melissa C. Owens, Esq.

ISSUE

Whether the Respondent properly denied Petitioner's permit application for on-premise Malt Beverage and off-premise Fortified and Unfortified Wine permits.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The undersigned Administrative Law Judge finds the following facts:

1. In July 1995, Petitioner acquired an established business in Washington, North Carolina. On July 31, 1995, Petitioner applied for on-premise Malt Beverage and off-premise Fortified Wine and Unfortified Wine permits for his business known as B & I Convenient Store located at 403 W. 4th Street.
2. Petitioner received temporary permits on July 31, 1995, but had such permits revoked on September 12, 1995 after his ABC permanent application was denied on September 6, 1995. The denial of Petitioner's permit application was based on objections to the suitability of the location and Petitioner's operation. There were no objections to the suitability of the Petitioner/Applicant to hold ABC permits.
3. On or about September 26, Petitioner filed a petition for a contested case hearing to appeal the Respondent's denial of his permit application.
4. ALE Agent David Dutton conducted an on-site investigation of Petitioner's business on August 3, 1995. During such investigation, Agent Dutton determined that the establishment was not clean, and did not have two working restrooms as required by the ABC Commission rules.
5. Petitioner's business did not have the $1500 worth of food stock required to be a "food business" to qualify for an off-premise Fortified Wine permit pursuant to G.S. 18B-1001(6) and ABC Commission Rule 4T NCAC 2S .0102(k).
6. During his investigation, Agent Dutton discovered in a trash can on the premises several empty fortified wine bottles, two bags of marijuana and two bags containing rocks of crack cocaine.
7. On August 17, 1995, Agent Dutton returned to the establishment and determined that the establishment still did not have the required $1500 food stock to be a "food business" and did not have the required two working restrooms. He also discovered several partially consumed, cold fortified wine bottles on the premises, thus indicating to Agent Dutton that fortified wine was being consumed on the premises.

8. The area surrounding the establishment is primarily residential with a barber shop, car wash and another ABC licensed establishment known as Moore's Play Room.

9. The establishment, formerly operated as Gibb's Grocery, held ABC permits.

10. This area of Washington around Petitioner's store has acquired a reputation over the last few years as a high crime and drug use area and is known as the most problematic area in Washington.

11. Officers of the Washington Police Department have observed illegal activities in the area around 403 W. 4th Street before Petitioner bought the establishment. During the operation of Gibb's Grocery, officers observed illegal activities occurring inside the establishment, including drug sales, such as marijuana and crack cocaine. A homicide occurred in the establishment's parking lot in August 1994.

12. Officers have also observed numerous people loitering around the 4th Street and Van Norden Street area, Petitioner's establishment, and in the street in front of Petitioner's establishment.

13. Sergeant Ben Sheppard of Washington Police Department conducted several inspections of the premises from September 7, 1995 through December 19, 1995. During this time period, Petitioner did not have his temporary ABC permits. Sergeant Sheppard discovered several crack pipes, small baggies with white powdery residue thought to be crack cocaine, a loaded semi-automatic pistol, and partially consumed, cold beer on the premises.

14. Washington Police Chief John Crone is the person designated by the City of Washington to respond to ABC permit applications. The City filed an objection to Petitioner's application objecting to the suitability of the location to hold ABC permits. The City's objection was based on numerous illegal activities and violence occurring at this location within the last few years.

15. Many of the illegal activities, including assaults, shootings, and fights, occurring in the area were also alcohol related. In its opinion, the Police Department feels the sale of alcohol at this location contributes to the already existing problems in the area and is detrimental to the neighborhood.

16. Calls made to the police from persons in the area for 1993 numbered 129; in 1994 numbered 40; and in 1995 numbered 30-40. The types of calls included aggravated assaults, shots fired and a homicide.

17. After Petitioner's temporary permits were revoked on September 12, 1995, the complaints from neighbors in the area decreased and the neighborhood became somewhat more quiet. However, loitering in the area was still a problem.

18. Mr. Walter Gorham, a resident living behind the establishment, testified that littering, loitering, loud music and violence such as fighting are continuous problems in the area.

19. Agent David Dutton and Chief John Crone indicated that Petitioner did not appear to have control over patrons visiting his establishment. After Petitioner began operating the business, patrons became more disruptive, including destroying the business' property.

20. Moore's Play Room, located at 329 W. 4th Street, holds an on-premise Malt Beverage permit. Agent Dutton testified this establishment differs from B & I Convenient Store because it is clean and doesn't have property surrounding its establishment for patrons to loiter.

21. North Carolina General Statutes Section 18B-901(c) provides, in pertinent part:

Factors in Issuing Permit.--Before issuing a permit, the Commission shall be satisfied that the applicant is a suitable person to hold an ABC permit and that the location is a suitable place to hold the permit for which he has applied. To be a suitable place, the establishment shall comply with all applicable building and fire codes. Other factors the Commission shall consider in determining whether the applicant and the business location are suitable are:

...

- (7) The recommendations of the local governing body; and
- (8) Any other evidence that would tend to show whether the applicant would comply with the ABC laws and whether operation of his business at that location would be detrimental to the neighborhood.

N.C. General Statutes 18B-901(c)(7)(8)(Cum. Supp 1994).

22. Respondent Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission has the authority and responsibility under Chapter 18B of the General Statutes of North Carolina to regulate the business of selling alcoholic beverages in North Carolina.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Based upon the foregoing Findings of Fact, the undersigned Administrative Law Judge makes the following Conclusions of Law:

- 1. The parties are properly before the Office of Administrative Hearings.
- 2. While the ABC Commission is required to consider the recommendations of the local governing body, it retains the sole power to determine the qualifications and suitability of an applicant for a permit. N.C. General Statutes 18B-901(d)(Cum. Supp. 1994).
- 3. The preponderance of substantial evidence presented in this case shows that 403 W. 4th Street is not a suitable location to hold ABC permits. The evidence shows a high incidence of illegal drug sales and a high general crime rate in the vicinity of Petitioner's business. It also shows that in the opinion of the local governing body of City of Washington, the sale of alcohol at that location would contribute to the already existing problems in the area and thereby be detrimental to the neighborhood.
- 4. Evidence of Petitioner's difficulty in controlling the patrons at his establishment and his failure to have a clean establishment with two working restrooms tends to show that in operating his business, the Petitioner would not abide by the ABC laws.

RECOMMENDED DECISION

Based upon the foregoing Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, it is hereby recommended that the ABC Commission find that 403 W. 4th Street is not a suitable location to hold ABC permits and Petitioner's permit application be denied.

ORDER

It is hereby ordered that the agency serve a copy of the final decision on the Office of Administrative Hearings, P.O. Drawer 27447, Raleigh, N.C. 27611-7447, in accordance with North Carolina General Statute 150B-36(b).

NOTICE

The agency making the final decision in this contested case is required to give each party an opportunity to file exceptions to this recommended decision and to present written arguments to those in the agency who will make the final decision. G.S. 150B-36(a).

The agency is required by G.S. 150B-36(b) to serve a copy of the final decision on all parties and to furnish a copy to the parties' attorney of record and to the Office of Administrative Hearings.

The agency that will make the final decision in this contested case is the North Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission.

This the 2nd day of February, 1996.

ISSUE

Whether Respondent properly dismissed Petitioner for just cause pursuant to G.S. 126-35.

STIPULATED FACTS

1. Petitioner was hired by Respondent as a Disease Intervention Specialist in the HIV/STD Control Branch on December 6, 1991.
2. Petitioner was employed by Respondent in the Winston-Salem Regional Office until March 2, 1995.
3. On March 1, 1995, Respondent held a predissmissal conference with Petitioner concerning his proposed dismissal.
4. On March 2, 1995, Petitioner was dismissed by Respondent. The Disciplinary Action Routing From stated that Petitioner was being dismissed for Personal Conduct. The attached documents explained that the personal conduct for which Petitioner was being dismissed was a breach of confidentiality due to Petitioner leaving a note for a patient that specifically stated that the patient needed to get a blood test for syphilis.

ADJUDICATED FACTS

5. It was Petitioner's job to locate people who had been exposed to sexually transmitted diseases, to inform them that they needed to be tested, and to counsel them. Petitioner's first three annual written evaluations show that his performance was generally good.
6. On August 25, 1994, Petitioner called a high school in Alamance County in order to speak to the high school nurse about a football player who needed to have a test for syphilis. Petitioner had already met with the football player and asked him to obtain a syphilis test and he had failed to do so. When he called the school, Petitioner spoke to a person who identified herself as the nurse's receptionist and who told him that the nurse was not in at the time. Petitioner left a message asking the nurse to speak to the football player about being tested for syphilis.

7. Petitioner believed that the receptionist was covered by the same confidentiality rules as the school nurse and that he had not breached confidentiality. Petitioner had observed other personnel in his office leaving similar messages for doctors, public health personnel, and school nurses.

8. The football player went to the public health clinic and obtained a blood test for syphilis, which was negative. The football player did not complain of any breach of confidentiality.

9. Petitioner's superiors issued him a final written warning and suspended him for three days as a result of this incident which they considered to be unacceptable personal conduct. In this warning, it was noted that Petitioner had been given an oral warning on April 18, 1994, for "failure to follow proper chain of command" because he wrote a letter to Governor Hunt, on his own time, about issues involving his work. Petitioner had received no other warnings.

10. On the evening of February 23, 1995, Petitioner drove from his office in Winston-Salem to High Point in order to locate a patient named "Larry" and notify him that he had been exposed to syphilis and needed a blood test. Because the patient was deaf, Petitioner could not contact him by phone. "Larry" was 30 years old and was listed in his medical records as being single. Petitioner had information that "Larry" worked at a truck repair business.

11. Petitioner went to the truck repair business in an attempt to locate the patient, only to find that the patient did not work at that business.

12. The next day, February 24, 1995, Petitioner drove back to High Point in an attempt to locate "Larry." Petitioner verified the patient's home address with a neighbor.

13. When he was unable to locate the patient at his home address, Petitioner left a referral letter in a sealed envelope, addressed with the patient's name and stamped "Confidential." The letter explained that "Larry" should contact Petitioner and said, "Please go to the Guilford County Public Health Clinic in High Point as soon as possible and tell them I referred you in. It's very important. You need to get a blood test for syphilis. . ." Petitioner securely fastened the envelope into the storm door of "Larry's" home.

14. Three days later, the patient's mother called Petitioner's office. Mr. Todd Van Hoy answered the phone and told her to have "Larry" go to the public health clinic. "Larry" and his mother reside together at the address where Petitioner left the envelope.

15. The patient went to the public health clinic and obtained a test for syphilis, which was negative. Neither the client nor his mother nor any other member of the public ever complained about the referral letter left by Petitioner or about any alleged breach of confidentiality.

16. Without discussing the incident with Petitioner, Mr. Van Hoy reported the incident to Ms. Judy Owen-O'Dowd.

17. On March 1, 1995, Petitioner went to Raleigh for a disciplinary conference with Ms. Judy Owen-O'Dowd, Mr. Paul Esbrandt, Mr. Todd Van Hoy, and Mr. Nick Engel.

18. On the following day, March 2, 1995, Petitioner was discharged from his position for the alleged breach of confidentiality in this letter to "Larry," i.e., writing the word "syphilis" on the letter and leaving the letter at the client's home in an addressed, sealed envelope, stamped "Confidential."

19. Ms. Owen-O'Dowd advised Petitioner that he was being discharged for unacceptable personal conduct. Her "Supervisor's Description of the Infraction" indicated that he violated G.S. 130A-143, the statute which protects the confidentiality of information on reportable diseases.

20. Ms. Owen-O'Dowd wrote up a Disciplinary Action Memorandum with respect to Petitioner's discharge. She listed on this Memorandum the "oral warning" for his letter to the Governor and the "final written warning" for his message to the school nurse; however, Ms. Owen-O'Dowd testified that Petitioner was not fired for these incidents. Ms. Owen-O'Dowd and other

DEHNR staff have testified that Petitioner was dismissed for unacceptable personal conduct due to leaving the letter for "Larry." All of the witnesses who testified on behalf of DEHNR at the hearing testified that Petitioner was being dismissed for unacceptable personal conduct and not because of unacceptable job performance.

21. Before he was discharged, Petitioner was never told not to use the word "syphilis" in a letter to a patient.
22. Although the training guidelines for Disease Intervention Specialists say not to mention the name of a disease in a "referral note," this guideline appears in a section about situations in which confidentiality is an "obvious problem." Petitioner signed annual confidentiality pledges that affirmed the necessity to preserve confidentiality of patient information.
23. DEHNR staff who testified at the hearing admitted that there was no "obvious problem" of confidentiality in the incident with "Larry."
24. Before Petitioner was discharged, it was a common practice for Disease Intervention Specialists in the Winston-Salem office to write the word "syphilis" on letters which they were mailing to clients. When Petitioner was trained for his job as a DIS, both his Supervisor, Mr. Van Hoy, and one of the Disease Intervention Specialists who was training him, Ms. Marnell Rolfingsmeier, showed Petitioner letters which they were mailing to clients which specifically told the client to obtain a blood test for "syphilis."
25. It was an approved practice in the Winston-Salem office to mail certified letters to clients who were in the late stages of syphilis, informing them that they needed to obtain a blood test for "syphilis," and specifically naming the disease.
26. Before Petitioner was discharged, he had seen other Disease Intervention Specialists leave sealed referral letters at patients' homes. These letters were marked to show that the patients needed a test for "syphilis."
27. Both Mr. Van Hoy and Ms. Rolfingsmeier left referral letters for patients at their residences, including letters in which they informed the patients to be tested for syphilis.
28. It was only after Petitioner was dismissed that Mr. Van Hoy instructed other employees in the Winston-Salem office not to write the name of any disease on letters which were mailed to a patient or left at the patient's residence.
29. Petitioner appealed his dismissal to the Acting Division Director, Mr. Steven S. Martin, alleging a lack of just cause for his dismissal and seeking to be reinstated. Mr. Martin declined to reinstate him. Petitioner contends that he has suffered retaliation for exercising his right to write the Governor about public issues.
30. Petitioner's salary was $21,000. Since being terminated, he has suffered loss of benefits and more than $7,000 in wages.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The parties are properly before the Office of Administrative Hearings and received proper notice of the hearing in this matter. This office has jurisdiction to hear the matter and issue a recommended decision to the State Personnel Commission which shall render a final agency decision.
2. A career State employee may be dismissed for "just cause" due to (1) unacceptable job performance and (2) unacceptable personal conduct. 25 NCAC 01J .0604(b).
3. "Unacceptable job performance" means the failure to satisfactorily perform job requirements as specified in the job description, work plan, or as directed by management of the work unit or agency. Since the state training materials for disease intervention specialists specifically state that letters sent to patients should not contain disease identifying information and Petitioner delivered a note to a patient's residence recommending he be tested for syphilis, Petitioner violated this policy.
4. "Unacceptable personal conduct" is defined as:
 1. conduct for which no reasonable person should expect to receive prior warnings;
 2. job-related conduct which constitutes a violation of state or federal laws;
 3. conviction of a felony or an offense involving moral turpitude;
 4. the willful violation of known or written work rules; or

5. conduct unbecoming a state employee that is detrimental to state service.

Petitioner's conduct was not a willful violation of known or written work rules. Although it would have been prudent for Petitioner to inform his supervisor of the need to deliver a note to the patient (due to the patient's deafness), Petitioner's actions were not unreasonable under the circumstances. Thus, while Petitioner violated the general practices for informing patients of their need to be tested, this violation was not willful.

Petitioner's conduct was also not a violation of state law. Leaving a note containing disease-identifying information at a patient's residence in a sealed envelope marked "confidential" is not a breach of confidentiality covered by G.S. 130A-143.

5. Respondent did not have just cause to terminate Petitioner's employment, but could issue him a written warning for unacceptable job performance.

Based on the foregoing Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, the Administrative Law Judge makes the following:

RECOMMENDED DECISION

That the State Personnel Commission order the Department of Environment, Health and Natural Resources to reinstate Petitioner to his position as a Disease Intervention Specialist and to pay him back pay, benefits, and the reasonable attorney's fees incurred in the appeal of his dismissal.

ORDER

It is hereby ordered that the agency serve a copy of the final decision on the Office of Administrative Hearings, P.O. Drawer 27447, Raleigh, N.C. 27611-7447, in accordance with North Carolina General Statute 150B-36(b).

NOTICE

The agency making the final decision in this contested case is required to give each party an opportunity to file exceptions to this recommended decision and to present written arguments to those in the agency who will make the final decision. G.S. 150B-36(a).

The agency is required by G.S. 150B-36(b) to serve a copy of the final decision on all parties and to furnish a copy to the parties' attorney of record and to the Office of Administrative Hearings.

The agency that will make the final decision in this contested case is the State Personnel Commission.

FINAL DECISION
 ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO DISMISS

THIS MATTER came on before the undersigned administrative law judge upon consideration of Respondent's Motion to Dismiss Petitioner's petition for a contested case hearing. Petitioner filed a response on January 16, 1996. After review of the motion, the response, and the legal arguments filed in support of each, the undersigned makes the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Petitioner filed a complaint with the Respondent Workplace Retaliatory Discrimination ("WORD") Division of the North Carolina Department of Labor alleging that his employer, SAS Institute, Inc., violated the Retaliatory Employment Discrimination Act ("REDA"), G.S. 95-241 et seq., by terminating him in retaliation for making a complaint about his employer under the North Carolina Occupational Safety and Health Act.

2. Respondent investigated the complaint pursuant to G.S. 95-242(a) and determined there was no reasonable cause to believe the allegation was true; this is referred to as a "No Merit" determination. Respondent dismissed the complaint and issued Petitioner a "right-to-sue" letter on September 19, 1995 which enabled the Petitioner to bring a REDA civil action in superior court against his former employer. Petitioner has filed such an action (95 CVS 12372) in Wake County Superior Court against SAS Institute, Inc.

3. On November 18, 1995, Petitioner filed his petition for contested case hearing challenging the "No Merit" determination by the Respondent. In the petition, Petitioner alleges that the agency did not conduct a proper investigation, thus eliminating the possibility that his case could be settled or negotiated by WORD or could be settled, negotiated or litigated by the North Carolina Department of Justice. Petitioner claims that the "No Merit" determination was arbitrary and capricious as well as erroneous and that the WORD Division failed to use proper procedure and failed to act as required by law or rule.

Based upon the foregoing Findings of Fact, the undersigned makes the following:

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

A. Personal Jurisdiction

1. The Office of Administrative Hearings has personal jurisdiction over the parties to hear this contested case. The North Carolina Department of Labor is not exempt from Chapter 150B, the Administrative Procedure Act ("APA"). G.S. 150B-1.

2. Department of Labor rule 13 NCAC 1B.0501 states:

When the Commissioner of Labor, by his official action, acts or proposes to act in a manner which will affect the rights, duties, privileges or a license of a specific, identifiable person or person, those persons have a right to an administrative hearing.

3. Department of Labor rule 13 NCAC 1B.0502 states that an affected person can file a formal request for a hearing after exhausting all reasonable efforts to informally resolve the matter with the Commissioner's office. The petition should be filed with the Office of Administrative Hearings pursuant to Article 3 of Chapter 150B of the General Statutes.

4. Department of Labor rule 13 NCAC 1B.0608 states that all rules of procedure for administrative hearings are "applicable to all divisions of the department" except the division of occupational health and safety administration. The Workplace Retaliatory Discrimination ("WORD") Division is not under the Occupational Safety and Health ("OSH") Division.

5. The Retaliatory Employment Discrimination Act ("REDA") does not deny or grant a right to appeal a "No Merit" determination made by the Respondent to OAH. Where neither the agency nor the agency proceeding is specifically exempted from the provisions of the APA, the contested case provisions of the APA apply to the Respondent. Empire Power Co. v. N.C. Dept. of E.H.N.R., 337 N.C. 569, 447 S.E.2d 768 (1994).

B. Subject Matter Jurisdiction and Failure to State A Claim

1. Although the Petitioner may file a petition for contested case hearing against the Respondent agency, he is limited by the claims he may make. Not every dispute between a person and an agency is the subject of a "contested case." Nor is every person "aggrieved" by agency action or inaction.

2. REDA provides a right to an employee to file a written complaint with the Department of Labor if he believes that his employer has violated G.S. 95-241. The Commissioner conducts an investigation of the claim and makes a determination whether or not there is reasonable cause to believe that the violation occurred. G.S. 95-242. If the Commissioner determines there is no merit to the claim, he dismisses the complaint and issues a "right-to-sue" letter to the employee. This enables the employee regardless of the determination by the Department to file a civil action against his employer pursuant to G.S. 95-243. The employee may seek an injunction, reinstatement to his employment, reinstatement of benefits, compensation for lost wages, etc., costs and expenses. If the violation is willful, damages are trebled. G.S. 95-243.

3. If the Commissioner determines that the employee has reasonable cause to believe that the allegation of retaliation is true, then the Commissioner is required to conduct informal mediation to eliminate the violation. If conciliatory efforts fail, then the Commissioner is required to either file a civil action on behalf of the employee or issue a "right-to-sue" letter to the employee enabling him to bring the civil action. G.S. 95-242.

4. G.S. 95-244 of REDA provides that "Nothing in this Article shall be deemed to diminish the rights or remedies of any employee under any . . . other statutory rights or remedies, or at common law."

5. The Administrative Procedure Act and the Department of Labor rules both state that the dispute with the agency for which a contested case may be brought must involve the person's "rights, duties, privileges or a license." The facts must allege that the Petitioner was deprived of property, ordered to pay a fine or civil penalty, or that the agency otherwise "substantially prejudiced the petitioner's rights." G.S. 150B-23(a).

6. To file a petition for a contested case hearing, the person must be "aggrieved" by the agency action. G.S. 150B-23(a). "Aggrieved person" has no technical meaning and depends on the circumstances. The decision must have had some adverse effect on the person. Empire Power Co. v. N.C. Dept. of E.H.N.R., supra at 588. As stated, under REDA, an employee has a right to an investigation by the Respondent agency. It is undisputed that this was done in this case and a determination was made that the Petitioner's claim had no merit. A "no merit" determination does not substantially prejudice an employee's right to bring a lawsuit against his employer. In fact, regardless of the determination by the agency, the Petitioner is issued a "right-to-sue" letter in order that a civil action may be brought. Thus, the Petitioner is not "aggrieved" by this agency action in that he is not affected either in his person, property or his employment by this administrative decision. G.S. 150B-2(6).

7. An agency investigation or fact finding activity which results in an agency decision not to go forward with formal, legal proceedings is not considered to be agency action that may be challenged in a "contested case" under the APA. Lloyd v. Babb, 296 N.C. 416, 251 S.E.2d 843 (1979); High Rock Lake Association v. N.C. Environmental Management Comm'n., 39 N.C.App. 699, 252 S.E.2d 109 (1979). Compare, Georator Corp. v. EEOC, 592 F.2d 765 (4th Cir. 1979). When comparing this type of proceeding to that of a district attorney evaluation prior to prosecution, the Court in High Rock Lake Association stated:

Our courts must refrain from the impulse to subject essentially discretionary matters to the rigors of administrative procedural requirements whether under an organic act or the Administrative Procedure Act.... 'A degree of informality may be essential if agencies are to accomplish the missions assigned to them with flexibility and expedition.' (citations omitted).

High Rock Lake Association v. N.C. Environmental Management Comm'n., supra at 703. In this case, the WORD Division conducts an investigation and considers whether or not to initiate a civil action on behalf of the employee. The decision to bring the civil action is purely discretionary with the agency. No legal rights, duties, or privileges are determined by the Respondent decision. High Rock Lake Association v. N.C. Environmental Comm'n., supra at 703, 707.

8. Petitioner's right to sue his employer was not substantially prejudiced by the Respondent's REDA investigation and determination of "no merit;" therefore, the Petitioner is not aggrieved and has failed to state a claim upon which relief can be granted pursuant to REDA or the APA. G.S. 150B-23(a); G.S. 1A-1, Rule 12(b)(6) of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure. Because the Petitioner is not aggrieved nor substantially prejudiced by agency action, OAH lacks subject matter jurisdiction to review this matter. Contrast, Empire Power Co. v. N.C. Dept. of E.H.N.R., supra at 588.

9. Petitioner also has appealed the REDA determination to the U.S. Department of Labor, OSHA Division pursuant to Section 11(c) of the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970. For this reason, Petitioner has an effective administrative remedy.

Based upon the foregoing Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, the undersigned makes the following:

FINAL DECISION

The Petitioner's petition for a contested case hearing is hereby DISMISSED for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted and for lack of subject matter jurisdiction.

NOTICE

In order to appeal a Final Decision, the person seeking review must file a Petition in the Superior Court of Wake County or in the superior court of the county where the person resides. The Petition for Judicial Review must be filed within thirty (30) days after the person is served with a copy of the Final Decision. G.S. 150B-46 describes the contents of the Petition and requires service of the Petition on all parties.

This the 14th day of February, 1996.
