Wanda:

Thank you for your email. I understand if you need additional time to review the technical change requests and respond to them. I can let the RRC know you are asking for additional time at its meeting on April 18.

I suggest that since this process is taking extra time that once you start rewriting the rules and respond to the queries in the technical change document that you go ahead and send those to me for review. That way, hopefully we can work to have these ready for the RRC's May 16 meeting.

And of course, please let me know if you have any questions or concerns or if I can be of any assistance.

There is no way we can make the April deadline due to the number of technical requests to be reviewed and addressed. I have two people and myself currently looking at these, but it will be the end of this week before we have a response. So, we'll have to move for the next deadline.

Thank you.

Wanda

Hi Amanda,

I will go through these first of next week.

I am copying Dedra Alston as well who put these in the original format as we will want to have her reformat with changes once through these. (Dedra, I will have my notes to you by Monday. )

Thanks.

Wanda

P.S. At this juncture, just take Ruby off as a contact. She's no longer on the Board.

Subject: RRC Request for Technical Changes

Please acknowledge receipt of this email!

Good afternoon, Wanda and Ruby!

I am the attorney reviewing the rules submitted by the Marriage and Family Therapy Licensure Board for RRC review. The RRC will review these rules at its meeting on Thursday, April 18, 2019. The meeting will begin at 9 a.m.

As you can see in the attached document, I am asking you to make technical changes to most of the rules. The properly formatted electronic copies of the rules are due by email to me by 5 p.m. on Tuesday, April 9, 2019.

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns regarding the attached or next steps. I know y'all don't do a lot of rulemaking, so I feel like I cannot emphasize this enough – DON'T PANIC! I am going to help you. We will get through this together. And I am always happy to help.

Amanda
