2 21 NCAC 32V .0111 PRACTICE DURING A DISASTER STATE OF EMERGENCY (a) In the event of a declared disaster or state of emergency that authorizes the Board to exercise its authority G.S. 90-12.2, [90-12.3,] and if the board [Board] does exercise its authority pursuant to G.S. 90-12.2, [90-12.3,] and if the board [Board] does exercise its authority pursuant to G.S. 90-12.2, [90-12.3,] Board may allow a perfusionist licensed in any other state, or a current, active certified clinical perfusionist practices in a state where licensure is not required, to perform perfusion during a disaster within a county in which a disaster or state of emergency has been declared or counties contiguous to a county in which a disaster or state emergency has been declared (in accordance with G.S. 166A-6). The perfusionist who enters the State for purpose this Rule shall notify the Board within three business days of his or her work site and provide proof of identification and current licensure or certification. The Board shall waive the requirements for licensure in the circumstance for him G.S. 90-12.5. (b) A perfusionist licensed in any other state, or a current, active certified clinical perfusionist who practices in where licensure is not required may practice in North Carolina if he or she either: (1) holds a full, unlimited, and unrestricted license to practice perfusion in another U.S. state, temporal for district; or G.S. 90-12.2, [90-12.5,] and if the board [Board]does exercise its authority pursuant to G.S. 90-12.2, [90-12.5] Board may allow a perfusionist licensed in any other state, or a current, active certified clinical perfusionist practices in a state where licensure is not required, to perform perfusion during a disaster within a county in we disaster or state of emergency has been declared or counties contiguous to a county in which a disaster or state for purpose this Rule shall notify the Board within three business days of his or her work site and provide proof of identificant and current licensure or certification. The Board shall waive the requirements for licensure in the circumstant forth in G.S. 90-12.5. (b) A perfusionist licensed in any other state, or a current, active certified clinical perfusionist who practices in where licensure is not required may practice in North Carolina if he or she either: The following individual practice under this Rule if he or she either: (1) holds a full, unlimited, and unrestricted license to practice perfusion in another U.S. state, terms of the current is active to practice perfusion in another U.S. state, terms of the current is required to the current in the circumstant practice under this Rule if he or she either:
Board may allow a perfusionist licensed in any other state, or a current, active certified clinical perfusionist practices in a state where licensure is not required, to perform perfusion during a disaster within a county in which a disaster or state of emergency has been declared or counties contiguous to a county in which a disaster or state of emergency has been declared or counties contiguous to a county in which a disaster or state of emergency has been declared (in accordance with G.S. 166A 6). The perfusionist who enters the State for purpose this Rule shall notify the Board within three business days of his or her work site and provide proof of identificant and current licensure or certification. The Board shall waive the requirements for licensure in the circumstant forth in G.S. 90-12.5. (b) A perfusionist licensed in any other state, or a current, active certified clinical perfusionist who practices in where licensure is not required may practice in North Carolina if he or she either: The following individual practice under this Rule if he or she either: (1) holds a full, unlimited, and unrestricted license to practice perfusion in another U.S. state, terms of the current of the circumstant of th practices in a state where licensure is not required, to perform perfusion during a disaster within a county in w disaster or state of emergency has been declared or counties contiguous to a county in which a disaster or state emergency has been declared (in accordance with G.S. 166A-6). The perfusionist who enters the State for purpose this Rule shall notify the Board within three business days of his or her work site and provide proof of identificant and current licensure or certification. The Board shall waive the requirements for licensure in the circumstant forth in G.S. 90-12.5. (b) A perfusionist licensed in any other state, or a current, active certified clinical perfusionist who practices in where licensure is not required may practice in North Carolina if he or she either: The following individual practice under this Rule if he or she either: (1) holds a full, unlimited, and unrestricted license to practice perfusion in another U.S. state, terms of the content of the c disaster or state of emergency has been declared or counties contiguous to a county in which a disaster or state emergency has been declared (in accordance with G.S. 166A-6). The perfusionist who enters the State for purpose this Rule shall notify the Board within three business days of his or her work site and provide proof of identificant and current licensure or certification. The Board shall waive the requirements for licensure in the circumstant forth in G.S. 90-12.5. (b) A perfusionist licensed in any other state, or a current, active certified clinical perfusionist who practices in where licensure is not required may practice in North Carolina if he or she either: The following individual practice under this Rule if he or she either: (1) holds a full, unlimited, and unrestricted license to practice perfusion in another U.S. state, terms of the country of emergency has been declared (in accordance with G.S. 166A 6). The perfusionist who enters the State for purpose this Rule shall notify the Board within three business days of his or her work site and provide proof of identificant and current licensure or certification. The Board shall waive the requirements for licensure in the circumstance forth in G.S. 90-12.5. (b) A perfusionist licensed in any other state, or a current, active certified clinical perfusionist who practices in where licensure is not required may practice in North Carolina if he or she either: The following individual practice under this Rule if he or she either: (1) holds a full, unlimited, and unrestricted license to practice perfusion in another U.S. state, terms this Rule shall notify the Board within three business days of his or her work site and provide proof of identification and current licensure or certification. The Board shall waive the requirements for licensure in the circumstant forth in G.S. 90-12.5. (b) A perfusionist licensed in any other state, or a current, active certified clinical perfusionist who practices in where licensure is not required may practice in North Carolina if he or she either: The following individual practice under this Rule if he or she either: (1) holds a full, unlimited, and unrestricted license to practice perfusion in another U.S. state, terms of the current state, and unrestricted license to practice perfusion in another U.S. state, terms of the current state and provide proof of identification. and current licensure or certification. The Board shall waive the requirements for licensure in the circumstance forth in G.S. 90-12.5. (b) A perfusionist licensed in any other state, or a current, active certified clinical perfusionist who practices in where licensure is not required may practice in North Carolina if he or she either: The following individual practice under this Rule if he or she either: (1) holds a full, unlimited, and unrestricted license to practice perfusion in another U.S. state, terms forth in G.S. 90-12.5. (b) A perfusionist licensed in any other state, or a current, active certified clinical perfusionist who practices in where licensure is not required may practice in North Carolina if he or she either: The following individual practice under this Rule if he or she either: (1) holds a full, unlimited, and unrestricted license to practice perfusion in another U.S. state, terms
 (b) A perfusionist licensed in any other state, or a current, active certified clinical perfusionist who practices in where licensure is not required may practice in North Carolina if he or she either: The following individual practice under this Rule if he or she either: (1) holds a full, unlimited, and unrestricted license to practice perfusion in another U.S. state, terms where licensure is not required may practice in North Carolina if he or she either: The following individual practice under this Rule if he or she either: (1) holds a full, unlimited, and unrestricted license to practice perfusion in another U.S. state, terms of the control practice under this Rule if he or she either: (1) holds a full, unlimited, and unrestricted license to practice perfusion in another U.S. state, terms 15 (1) holds a full, unlimited, and unrestricted license to practice perfusion in another U.S. state, terms of the control of 16 or district; or
17 (2) is a [current, active certified clinical perfusionist who practices in a state where licens not required who practices perfusion at a North Carolina hospital that is licensed by the 19 Carolina Department of Health and Human Services and the hospital meets the following the Carolina Department of Health and Human Services and the hospital meets the following the Carolina Department of Health and Human Services and the hospital meets the following the Carolina Department of Health and Human Services and the hospital meets the following the Carolina Department of Health and Human Services and the hospital meets the following the Carolina Department of Health and Human Services and the hospital meets the following the Carolina Department of Health and Human Services and the hospital meets the following the Carolina Department of Health and Human Services and the hospital meets the following the Carolina Department of Health and Human Services and the hospital meets the following the Carolina Department of Health and Human Services and the hospital meets the following the Carolina Department of Health and Human Services and the Huma 20 requirements:
21 (A) verifies [all] the perfusionist's credentials and privileges; and
(B) maintains a list of all perfusionists coming to practice and provides this list to the Board 23 10 days of each perfusionist practicing at the [licensed North Carolina] hospital. The North Carolina hospital shall also provide the Board a list of when each perfusioni 25 stopped practicing perfusion in North Carolina under this Rule within 10 days after
26 perfusionist has stopped practicing perfusion under this Rule.
27 (c) A perfusionist may practice under this Rule for the shorter of either:
28 (1) [30] thirty days from the date the perfusionist has started practicing under this Rule; or [a statement by an appropriate authority is made that the emergency or disaster declaration has withdrawn or ended and, at such time, the license deemed to be issued shall become inactive.] days after a statement by an appropriate authority is made that the state of emergency has withdrawn or ended. 33 (e)(d) All perfusionists practicing under this Rule shall be authorized to practice perfusion in North Carolina and be deemed to be licensed [to practice perfusion in the State of North Carolina and the] in this State. The Board have jurisdiction over [all] perfusionists practicing under this Rule for all purposes set forth in or related to G.
Articles 1 and 40, and such jurisdiction shall continue in effect even after [all perfusionists have] the perfusion 37 stopped practicing [perfusion] under this Rule.

1 of 2

1	History Note:	Authority G.S. 90-12.5; [90-685(3) 90-685(3)(4a)(5)(6) and (7).] 90-685;
2		Eff. September 1, 2007;
3		Pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.3A rule is necessary without substantive public interest Eff. March 1,
4		2016. 2016;
5		Amended Eff. August 1, 2020.