9B. Explain: Pursuant to GS 150B-21.3A, Periodic Review and Expiration of Existing Rules, all rules are reviewed at least every 10 years, or they shall expire. As a result of the periodic review of Chapter 10A NCAC 15, Radiation Protection, this rule was determined as “Necessary With Substantive Public Interest,” requiring readoption. With input from the Non-Ionizing Committee of the Radiation Protection Commission, substantive revisions have been made to this rule with the addition of two safety requirements. One is to maintain a record of each consumer’s skin type according to a method distinguishing six skin types for exposure to ultraviolet radiation from tanning, and the other is to document the ultraviolet bulb usage hours to prevent use beyond manufacturer recommendation.

9B. Explain: In 2019 the American Association of Pastoral Counselors dissolved. As a result, the supervision options for candidates for certification in pastoral counseling in North Carolina were significantly limited as the rules are currently written. The changes proposed increase the qualified supervision options for candidates pursuing certification. Additionally, it is in the public's best interest to expand the pool of certified pastoral counselors in the state to meet the growing demand for faith-sensitive mental health care. These rules alleviate barriers to certification and allow the board to update and expand its ability to serve the public in this area.

9B. Explain: In 2019 the American Association of Pastoral Counselors dissolved. As a result, the supervision options for candidates for certification in pastoral counseling in North Carolina were significantly limited as the rules are currently written. The changes proposed increase the qualified supervision options for candidates pursuing certification. Additionally, it is in the public's best interest to expand the pool of certified pastoral counselors in the state to meet the growing demand for faith-sensitive mental health care. These rules alleviate barriers to certification and allow the board to update and expand its ability to serve the public in this area.
