4 12 NCAC 10B .2005 MINIMUM TRAINING REQUIREMENTS

5 (a) A Sheriff or Department Head may use a lesson plan developed by the North Carolina Justice Academy or a lesson
6 plan for any of the topical areas developed by another entity. The Sheriff or Department Head may also use a lesson plan 7 developed by a certified instructor, provided that the instructor develops the lesson plan in accordance with the 8 Instructional Systems Development model as taught in Criminal Justice Instructor Training in 12 NCAC 09B .0209.
9 Lesson plans shall be designed to be delivered in hourly increments. A student who completes the training shall receive 10 the number of credits that correspond to the number of credits assigned to the number of hours, regardless of the amount 11 of time the student spends completing the course where each hour shall be worth one credit (e.g., "Legal Update" is 12 designed to be delivered in four hours and will yield four credits). With the exception of Firearms Training and 13 Requalification, successful completion of training shall be demonstrated by passing tests as developed by the delivering 14 agency or as written by the North Carolina Justice Academy. A written test comprised of at least five questions per hour
15 of training shall be developed by the delivering agency, or the agency may use the written test developed by the North
16 Carolina Justice Academy, for each in-service training topic. A student shall pass each test by achieving 70 percent 17 correct answers. Firearms Training and Requalification shall be demonstrated qualification with a firearm as set out in 18 Section .2100 of this Subchapter.

4 12 NCAC 10B .2006 IN-SERVICE TRAINING PROGRAM SPECIFICATIONS

5 Justice officers who have been active as a deputy sheriff, detention officer, or telecommunicator between January and 6 June of each calendar year must complete the respective In-Service Training Program(s) established by 12 NCAC 10B
7 .2002 by December of each calendar year. For each justice officer holding multiple certifications from the Commission,
8 the Sheriff shall designate the officer's primary duties for the purpose of selecting which one of the in-service training
9 programs the officer must complete for a calendar year. A justice officer who fails to complete in-service training as 10 required, but is either separated or made inactive prior to the end of the calendar year, may be re-activated after 11 completing the in-service training program prescribed for the year immediately preceding the year in which the officer is 12 being activated. Persons applying to receive deputy certification who have prior service as a criminal justice officer as 13 defined in 12 NCAC 09A .0103(6) between January and June of a prior year who failed to complete in-service training 14 for that year, must complete the in-service training program prescribed for the year immediately preceding the year in 15 which the officer is being activated as a deputy.

16 (a) Justice officers who have been active as a deputy sheriff, detention officer, or telecommunicator between January and 17 July of each calendar year shall complete the respective In-Service Training Program(s) established by 12 NCAC 10B
18 .2002 by the end of December of each calendar year.

19 (b) For each justice officer holding multiple certifications from the Commission with the same office, the Sheriff shall 20 designate the officer's primary duties for the purpose of selecting which one of the in-service training programs the officer 21 shall complete for a calendar year.

22 (c) A justice officer who fails to complete in-service training as required, but is either separated or made inactive prior to 23 the end of the calendar year, may be re-activated after completing the in-service training program prescribed for the year 24 immediately preceding the year in which the officer is being activated.

25 (d) Persons who have prior service as a criminal justice officer as defined in 12 NCAC 09A .0103(6) between January
26 and July of the current year, and who then become an active deputy sheriff are required to complete the in-service
27 training program for that year, unless the person is also either a detention officer or telecommunicator with the same
28 Sheriff's Office and the Sheriff has designated the officer's primary function to be either a detention officer or 29 telecommunicator.

30 (e) Persons who have prior service as a criminal justice officer as defined in 12 NCAC 09A .0103(6) between January
31 and July of a prior year who failed to complete in-service training for that year, shall complete the in-service training 32 program prescribed for the year immediately preceding the year in which the officer is being activated as a deputy, unless 33 the person was also reported to this Commission as a telecommunicator with the same agency and completed the 34 telecommunicator in-service training for that year.
