The existing rules do not accomplish their intended statutory purpose to improve monitoring and oversight of state awards to non-state entities. Current reporting requirements result in duplicative reporting by recipients without a commensurate benefit. Furthermore, current reports do not add any identifiable value to the process or result in performance improvements or fraud reduction. The proposed rules improve reporting requirements and adequately emphasize monitoring and oversight. The proposed rules also clarify the oversight responsibilities of both agencies and OSBM. | |

Explain: The Office of State Budget and Management is proposing to readopt and repeal the rules pursuant to the existing rules review process as outlined in N.C.G.S. 150B-21.3A. The rules proposed for readoption with substantive changes address shortcomings in the current rules. The existing rules do not accomplish their intended statutory purpose to improve monitoring and oversight of state awards to non-state entities. Current reporting requirements result in duplicative reporting by recipients without a commensurate benefit. Furthermore, current reports do not add any identifiable value to the process or result in performance improvements or fraud reduction. The proposed rules improve reporting requirements and adequately emphasize monitoring and oversight. The proposed rules also clarify the oversight responsibilities of both agencies and OSBM.  | |

| 9B. Explain: At the September 2015 EMC meeting, the EMC approved rule amendments reflecting the reclassification of a portion of the Cape Fear River in New Hanover and Brunswick Counties to Class SC Sw with a water quality management plan. The rulemaking involved proposed amendments to 15A NCAC 2B .0227 and .0311 that had been publicly noticed in early 2015 and adopted in conjunction with each other. Then the Division of Water Resources (DWR) submitted the rule amendments to the RRC, and RRC counsel requested technical changes to 2B .0227 but not 2B .0311. DWR responded to the requested technical changes with a revised version of 2B .0227 that EMC approved at its November 2015 meeting to go out to public notice unaccompanied by 2B .0311. A 60-day public notice period was held from December 15, 2015 – February 15, 2016, and EMC adopted revisions to 2B .0227 on May 12, 2016. | |

On 13 January 2015, the United States Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) promulgated a revised final rule concerning the Definition of Solid Waste, 80 Fed. Reg. 1694 (Jan. 13, 2015) ("2015 DSW Rule") that became effective on 13 July 2015. The 2015 DSW Rule retains certain changes originally made in the 2008 DSW Rule but "revises several recycling-related provisions associated with the definition of solid waste used to determine hazardous waste regulation under Subtitle C of [RCRA]." Its purpose "is to ensure that the hazardous secondary materials recycling regulations, as implemented, encourage reclamation in a way that does not result in increased risk to human health and the environment from discarded hazardous secondary material." Id. at 1694. For this rule the definition of "Contained" was added and the definitions of "Facility" and "Transfer Facility" were deleted. | |

Explain: On February 7, 2014, EPA promulgated final rulemaking that proposed several major revisions to the hazardous waste manifest system (79 FR 7518) that became effective on August 6, 2014. This legislation was enacted into law expressly to direct EPA to establish a national e-Manifest system, as well as to facilitate the establishment of the e-Manifest system by providing EPA with explicit statutory authority needed to implement the electronic manifest in a self-sustaining manner. The rule adds 40 CFR 263.25 which states that transporters using the electronic manifest signatures shall meet the criteria described in 40 CFR 262.25. | |

See below   | |
| 9B. Explain: According to N.C. Gen. Stat. § 90D-7 (Requirements for Licensure), which is a governing statute of the North Carolina Interpreter and Transliterator Licensing Board (NCITLB), a full licensee (as opposed to a provisional licensee) must be "nationally certified by the Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf, Inc., (RID)." To obtain certification, the provisional licensee must pass an examination provided by RID. However, RID has recently placed a moratorium on providing such examinations, so provisional licensees are unable to obtain certification and, thus, full licensure. The amended Rule allows a provisional licensee time to remain provisionally licensed until the moratorium is lifted and certification can be obtained through the examination. It is adopted as a permanent rule to provide for possible future additional moratoriums. Further, the NCITLB has adopted a change in the subject Rule to allow an extension where the birth or adoption of a child has delayed the applicant's progress towards full licensure. | |
