3 21 NCAC 10 .0305 PREPAID TREATMENT PLANS

4 (a) Prepaid Treatment Plan Defined. A “prepaid treatment plan” is ~~any contractual agreement between a patient and~~
5 ~~a chiropractic physician under which the patient pays to the physician a lump sum in advance for health care services~~
6 ~~that are to be performed by the physician or the physician’s staff in the future and that are not covered by insurance.~~
7 a contract between a patient and a chiropractic physician under which the patient, instead of paying for services as
8 they are delivered, agrees in advance to pay a pre-determined total amount to the physician for a series of specified
9 treatments and services to be performed by the physician or the physician’s staff in the future and that are not covered
10 by insurance. The patient’s financial obligation may be payable in a lump sum or in periodic installments.

11 (b) Non-Conforming Plans Unlawful. A ~~chiropractic~~ physician who offers to a patient a prepaid treatment plan that 12 does not conform to this Rule shall be subject to disciplinary action pursuant to G.S. 90-154(b)(9), ~~Committing or~~
13 ~~Attempting to Commit Fraud, Deception or Misrepresentation.~~ committing or attempting to commit fraud, deception
14 or misrepresentation.

15 (c) Required Contractual Provisions. A prepaid treatment plan shall be in writing and signed by the patient. The 16 physician shall provide an accurate and complete copy of the plan document to the patient. In addition to any
17 permissive provisions not in conflict with this Rule, the plan document shall contain the following mandatory
18 provisions:

- 19 (1) The duration of the plan, measured either by number of office visits or calendar days;
- 20 (2) The therapeutic objectives of the plan, based on a physical examination and assessment of the patient 21 performed by the physician prior to the plan’s start date;
- 22 (3) The patient’s cost to purchase the plan;
- 23 (4) A description of the services and products that are included within the plan and for which there will 24 be no additional charges;
- 25 (5) A disclaimer, in bold-faced type, that the patient could incur additional charges if services and
26 products not included within the plan are delivered to the patient during the course of ~~treatment.~~
27 treatment;
- 28 (6) A description of the physician’s office policy regarding charges for cancelled office visits and office 29 visits not kept; and
- 30 (7) A declaration of the patient’s right to terminate the plan early and receive a refund in conformity
31 with Paragraphs (d) and (e) of this Rule.

32 (d) Refund Calculation. The patient shall have the right to terminate a prepaid treatment plan at any point prior to 33 the stated expiration without incurring any financial penalty. The physician may charge the patient the full amount for 34 dispensed products that cannot be re-stocked, including opened nutritional supplements and used cervical pillows,
35 orthotic and neurological ~~appliances~~ appliances, and similar durable medical equipment. In all other respects, the 36 amount of the refund payable to the patient shall be calculated strictly pro-rata, based on the measure of duration

1 recited in the plan document (office visits or calendar days). No other method of refund calculation shall be permitted,
2 and any provision in the plan that specifies another method of calculation shall be void.

3 (e) Notice of Plan Termination; Prompt Refund. The physician may require that a patient give notice of plan
4 termination by delivery of a paper writing dated and signed by the patient or a person authorized to sign in the patient's
5 behalf. The physician shall not impose any other procedural impediments to obtaining a refund. The physician shall 6 issue the appropriate pro-rata refund within ten business days after receiving notice of plan termination.

7 (f) Administrative Fees. The physician shall not collect from a patient any fees for administering a plan other than 8 pass-through fees for which the physician is liable, such as credit card processing fees.
