Explain: S.L. 2023-14, Part V—as amended by S.L. 2023-65, Part XIII-A, and S.L. 2023-134, Section 7.83—added G.S. 126-8.6 to the North Carolina General Statutes, which provides for paid parental leave for State employees and employees of other public entities, including the public school system. G.S. 126-8.6(c) directs the State Human Resources Commission (SHRC) to adopt rules and policies providing for State employees to receive paid parental leave of up to 8 weeks after giving birth to a child and up to 4 weeks after any other qualifying event (defined as becoming a parent to a child). G.S. 126-8.6(e) directs the “appropriate governing board, officer, or entity” to adopt rules and policies awarding paid parental leave to other employees covered by the law that are “substantially equivalent” to those adopted by the SHRC. As the governing board for the North Carolina public school system, the State Board of Education (SBE) is charged with adopting paid parental leave rules for public school employees. The SHRC adopted its temporary rules, effective August 25, 2023, and published in the North Carolina Register at 38:06 NCR 354–57. The SBE adopted its temporary rule, effective October 27, 2023, and published in the Register at 38:10 NCR 639–41. The SHRC proposed permanent rules to replace the temporary rules, published in the Register at 38:18 NCR 1204–08, which added additional substantive provisions not previously addressed by the temporary rules. The SHRC adopted these rules (unchanged from publication) on June 7, 2024, and the RRC approved them during its meeting on July 31, 2024. The SBE has adopted a final permanent rule, which is substantially equivalent to the SHRC final permanent rules.

9B. Explain: In April 2023, the General Assembly enacted S.L. 2023-10, which significantly re-organized the governance structure for the North Carolina School for the Deaf, the Eastern North Carolina School for the Deaf, and the Governor Morehead School for the Blind. Effective July 1, 2024, governance of these institutions transferred from the State Board of Education (SBE) to an independent board of trustees for each institution. New G.S. 115C-150.12C sets forth the powers and duties of the boards of trustees, which includes the power to “adopt rules necessary for the administration of the school to implement the requirements of [Chapter 115C, Article 9C of the General Statutes].” Subdivision (36) of that section provides that the boards of trustees are exempt from the rulemaking provisions of Article 2A of Chapter 150B. At the same time, G.S. 115C-150.11(a), as amended, reserves to the SBE the authority to adopt rules governing the boards of trustees in accordance with Chapter 150B. In recognition of this change, the SBE has voted to repeal three subchapters of Title 16, Chapter 6 of the North Carolina Administrative Code that currently govern the schools for the deaf and blind. As an initial matter, many of these rules rely on statutory authority that has since been repealed, are unenforceable as written, or are simply outdated. Moreover, most of the issues addressed by these rules are issues that G.S. 115C-150.11(a) specifically reserves to the determination of the new board of trustees or are otherwise best left to their considered judgment in consultation with school personnel. Finally, and most importantly, certain rules are inconsistent with the new admissions criteria and procedures for these institutions required by new G.S. 115C-150.13A. For example, 16 NCAC 06K .0104 currently provides that if the Individualized Education Plan (IEP) team for a student identified as a child with disabilities determines that placement in one of these institutions is the least restrictive placement for that child, the child must be placed there. By contrast, G.S. 115C-150.13A requires each institution to have an admissions committee that determines whether a child will be admitted to the school based on several specified criteria. For these reasons, the SBE has determined that repeal of these rules is necessary and appropriate. Since the rules are being repealed, no fiscal note is required.

On May 16, 2023, Senate Bill 20/Session Law 2023-14 Care for Women, Children and Families Act was enacted. Subsequently, Senate Bill 389 Technical Changes to the Midwifery Statutes was enacted, granting authority to the MJC to adopt, amend, and repeal rules necessary to administer the provisions of the Article. Legislation directed the MJC to adopt rules to address the Certified Nurse Midwife (CNM) approval to practice independently and in transition to independent practice. These rules include working under a collaborative provider agreement, prescribing authority, and rules governing planned births outside of hospital settings attended by CNMs. Portions of this law became effective October 1, 2023. Temporary rules were adopted effective October 1, 2023 and remain in effect during permanent rulemaking. The adoption of these permanent rules protects the health and safety of the public, clarifies the MJC’s requirements for midwifery practice and meets the legislature’s charge to promulgate rules to carry out this Law.

Explain: The effective date of a recent act of the General Assembly or of the U.S. Congress, cite: Senate Bill 20/Session Law 2023-14, effective date: May 16, 2023. In accordance with § 150B-21.1(a)(2), the Midwifery Joint Committee (MJC) submits proposed Chapter 33 permanent rules addressing “the effective date of a recent act of the General Assembly or the United States Congress”. On May 16, 2023, Senate Bill 20/Session Law 2023-14 Care for Women, Children and Families Act was enacted. Subsequently, Senate Bill 389 Technical Changes to the Midwifery Statutes was enacted, granting authority to the MJC to adopt, amend, and repeal rules necessary to administer the provisions of the Article. Legislation directed the MJC to adopt rules to address the Certified Nurse Midwife (CNM) approval to practice independently and in transition to independent practice. These rules include working under a collaborative provider agreement, prescribing authority, and rules governing planned births outside of hospital settings attended by CNMs. Portions of this law became effective October 1, 2023. Temporary rules were adopted effective October 1, 2023 and remain in effect during permanent rulemaking. The adoption of these permanent rules protects the health and safety of the public, clarifies the MJC’s requirements for midwifery practice and meets the legislature’s charge to promulgate rules to carry out this Law.

Explain: The effective date of a recent act of the General Assembly or of the U.S. Congress, cite: Senate Bill 20/Session Law 2023-14, effective date: May 16, 2023. In accordance with § 150B-21.1(a)(2), the Midwifery Joint Committee (MJC) submits proposed Chapter 33 permanent rules addressing “the effective date of a recent act of the General Assembly or the United States Congress”. On May 16, 2023, Senate Bill 20/Session Law 2023-14 Care for Women, Children and Families Act was enacted. Subsequently, Senate Bill 389 Technical Changes to the Midwifery Statutes was enacted, granting authority to the MJC to adopt, amend, and repeal rules necessary to administer the provisions of the Article. Legislation directed the MJC to adopt rules to address the Certified Nurse Midwife (CNM) approval to practice independently and in transition to independent practice. These rules include working under a collaborative provider agreement, prescribing authority, and rules governing planned births outside of hospital settings attended by CNMs. Portions of this law became effective October 1, 2023. The adoption of these permanent rules protects the health and safety of the public, clarifies the MJC’s requirements for midwifery practice and meets the legislature’s charge to promulgate rules to carry out this Law.
