This email is to formally request an extension for the North Carolina Board of Nursing (NCBON) Rules scheduled for review by RRC on Tuesday, November 24, 2026. We would like to request an extension to the RRC meeting scheduled for January 28, 2027.

Staff have been working diligently on the Request for Technical Change received on November 5, 2026, and require additional time to address the number of questions provided for each Rule. With the holidays approaching and our Chief Legal Officer scheduled for Medical Leave for the remainder of the calendar year beginning November 18, 2026, we request additional time to complete the review and submit the Rules to RRC.

Please advise. Thank you for working with the NCBON to ensure our Rules comply with the requirements of the Administrative Code.
