2
3 TITLE 26 – OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS

4
5 CHAPTER 05 – RULES REVIEW COMMISSION

6
7 SECTION .0100 - GENERAL

8
9 26 NCAC 05 .0101 DEFINITIONS

10 As used in this Chapter the following terms have the following meanings unless the context indicates otherwise:

11 (1) “Agency” means as defined in G.S. 150B-2(1b).

12 ~~(1)~~(2) "Commission" or "RRC" means the Rules Review Commission as established in G.S. 143B-30.1.

13 ~~(2)~~(3) "Objection letter" means any letter or other written correspondence from the public pursuant to G.S.
14 150B-21.3(b2) objecting to a rule and requesting review of the rule by the General Assembly filed
15 with the Rules Review Commission while the rule is under review by the Rules Review
16 Commission.

17 ~~(3)~~(4) "Review" means the statutory "Part 3. Review by Commission" at G.S. 150B-21.8 and following
18 including the RRC action as set out in G.S. 150B-21.10.

19 ~~(4)~~(5) "Rewritten rules" mean rules that have been revised in an attempt to satisfy an objection by the
20 Commission.

21 ~~(5)~~(6) "Technical Changes" mean the changes made by an agency to reply to a request from the 22 Commission or its staff as set out in G.S. 150B-21.10. Technical changes shall not result in a
23 substantive change in the meaning, interpretation, or application of a rule and include the following
24 categories of changes:

25 (a) Correcting errors of a general nature including:

26 (i) obvious typographical errors, misspellings, punctuation, and grammatical errors;

27 (ii) preferred English or legal usage;

28 (iii) errors in complying with OAH or, perhaps, statutory requirements that are not 29 substantive errors; and

30 (iv) proof of compliance with the legally required process.

31 (b) Correcting errors that would appear to be substantive changes except that they do not
32 change the intended or accepted meaning, interpretation or application of the rule 33 including:

34 (i) changing "should" or "will" to "shall" or "must;"

35 (ii) clarifying the use of "approved;"

36 (iii) clarifying or correcting the use of "and," "or" or "and/or;"

- 1 (iv) clarifying or deleting commonly used adjectives or adverbs such as "thoroughly,"
- 2 "clearly," "adequately," "appropriate," and "substantial;" and
- 3 (v) inserting substantive contents of a rule's catchline (or title) into the rule itself.
- 4 (c) Requesting agencies to rewrite a rule, paragraph, or portions of a rule to more clearly
- 5 express the intent of the agency when the meaning and application of the rule is known and
- 6 understood.
- 7 (d) Acting on agencies' requests on behalf of citizens or agency staff to clarify the intent,
- 8 requirements, or prohibition of a rule that would not result in a change in the rule's
- 9 enforcement.
- 10 (e) Deleting or rewriting portions of rules that are not necessary rather than raising objections.

3 26 NCAC 05 .0105 REQUIRED NOTICE PRIOR TO ORAL RRC PRESENTATION

4 (a) The Chair may allow an agency or any person to make oral statements in support of or in opposition to a rule or 5 report as set forth in Rule .0206 of this Chapter.

6 (b) Any person or agency desiring to make an oral statement concerning a permanent rule shall notify the RRC staff
7 in writing by 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time of the second business day before the RRC meeting. The notice shall identify 8 the rule upon which the oral statement will be made and shall also include the name, address, telephone number, fax
9 number and email address of the individual who will be making the oral statement. If the person did not submit a
10 written comment, the person shall state whether the oral statement will support or oppose the rule or report.

11 (c) Any person or agency desiring to make an oral statement concerning a temporary rule shall notify the RRC staff
12 prior to the start of the RRC meeting or RRC designee meeting at which a temporary rule will be reviewed. The notice
13 shall identify the rule upon which the oral statement will be made and shall also include the name, address, telephone
14 number, fax number and email address of the individual who will be making the oral statement. If the person did not
15 submit a written comment, the person shall state whether the oral statement will support or oppose the rule.

16 (d) At the same time the person notifies the RRC staff, the person shall also notify the rule making coordinator for
17 the agency proposing the rule if the person wishes to speak in opposition to the rule or report. If a person fails to 18 notify the agency in accordance with this rule, the Chair may deny a request to make an oral statement to the RRC.

19 (e) If the Commission asks an individual to address a rule or report, the prior notice required by this Rule does not 20 apply.

26 NCAC 05 .0106 LIMITATIONS ON ORAL PRESENTATIONS

(a) The RRC Chair in open session may set time limits on oral presentations before the Commission.

(b) Unless the Chair sets other time limits for oral presentations, the time allowed for presentations shall not exceed ~~ten~~ five minutes for each requesting person or agency. The Chair may require that oral presentations be limited to representative spokespersons for those advocating or those opposing rule approval by the RRC.

(c) Factors that the Chair may use in determining time limits ~~are: include the length of the agenda and time remaining in the meeting; the number of contested rules; the complexity of the issues; the public interest in a particular rule or report; the number of people desiring to address the RRC concerning the rule or report; the variations in their arguments (i.e., whether they are adding additional information to the debate or merely being repetitive of earlier speakers or earlier points raised by the same speaker) and the level of agreement within their positions or relationships; the nature of the comments in relation to the RRC scope of review; and the amount of notice given to the agency.~~

- (1) the length of the agenda and of the meeting;
- (2) the number of rules subject to comment;
- (3) the complexity of the issues;
- (4) the public interest in a particular rule or report;
- (5) the number of people desiring to address the RRC concerning the rule or report;
- (6) the variations in the speakers' arguments and the level of agreement within their positions or relationships;
- (7) the nature of the comments in relation to the RRC scope of review; and
- (8) the amount of notice given to the agency.

(d) The agency adopting the rule shall be allowed an opportunity to address the Commission when a person addresses the Commission in opposition to a rule, unless the agency fails to appear after notice of written comments opposing approval of the rule. When a comment in opposition to a rule first occurs by an oral comment at the Commission meeting, the agency shall be allowed an opportunity to address the Commission at the next meeting of the Commission or Commission's designee where the rule is under review.

6 (1) "Determination" means a classification of a rule as necessary or unnecessary.

7 (a) ~~unnecessary;~~

8 (b) ~~necessary with substantive public interest; or~~

9 (c) ~~necessary without substantive public interest.~~

10 (2) "Existing rules" means rules currently in the Code as of January 1, 2024 and every 10 years
11 thereafter, at the time the schedule contained in Rule .0211 of this Section becomes effective and 12 are not repealed, transferred, expired, or reserved.

13 (3) "Report" means the report established pursuant to Rule .0206 of this Section, used to implement
14 steps one through three in G.S. 150B-21.3A(c).

3 26 NCAC 05 .0203 DEADLINES

4 (a) The Commission shall submit by email to the rulemaking coordinator of an agency subject to the review a report
5 containing its existing rules. Agencies shall have 10 business days after the report is sent to review it for accuracy
6 and completeness. An agency shall notify the Commission staff by email at oah.rules@oah.nc.gov of any errors or 7 missing rules within the 10 business days following the date the RRC sent the report.

8 (b) An agency shall complete the report as set out in Rule .0206(b) of this Section. The agency shall then submit its 9 initial report to the Office of Administrative Hearings at the above email address and OAH shall post the report on its 10 website within five business days of receipt.

11 (c) All reports shall be filed on or before the ~~15th~~ 20th day of the month for Commission review of the report at its 12 meeting the following month, using the schedule set forth in Rule .0211 of this Section. Commission counsel shall 13 notify an agency if he or she intends to recommend reviewing this report at a later meeting. The Commission may 14 delay reviewing a report until a later meeting if the workload of the Commission and its staff makes the review
15 impracticable. If the Commission delays reviewing a report, it shall notify the agency. In rescheduling any review,
16 the Commission shall consider the date on which the report was filed with the Commission.

17 (d) All deadlines that require filing or notification as set forth in this Rule shall be by 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on the 18 business day of the deadline or the next business day following the deadline if the deadline falls on a non-business
19 day.

3 26 NCAC 05 .0204 EXTENSION OF TIME

4 (a) If the agency cannot meet the filing deadline set forth in Rules .0203(c) and .0211 of this Section, the agency head
5 may submit a written request for an extension of time from the Commission. The Commission shall consider the 6 request at its next regularly scheduled meeting. The Commission's decision shall be made on a case by case basis,
7 considering the justification offered by the agency requesting the extension, which may include:

- 8 (1) the efforts of the agency to comply with the review;
- 9 (2) any illness or incapacity of the staff member assigned responsibility for submitting the report;
- 10 (3) changes of composition to the agency or its staff that resulted in a delay of the review;
- 11 (4) whether the agency received a volume of comments that requires additional time to respond; and
- 12 (5) arguments against the delay by members of the public.

13 (b) A request solely citing time constraints to complete the report is insufficient for an extension of time.

14 (c) If an agency head submits a request for an extension, the agency shall post notice on its website and notify its
15 interested persons mailing list maintained pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.2(d) that the RRC will review the request at its 16 next regularly scheduled meeting. The notice shall also inform the public that individuals may contact the Commission
17 to object to the delay.

18 (d) Any person desiring to submit written arguments against the delay proposed by an agency shall submit the 19 comments by email to the individual commissioners and to the RRC staff by 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on the Tuesday
20 prior to the meeting.

4 AND ADD UNNECESSARY RULES TO THE SCHEDULE

5 (a) If an agency wishes to reschedule a report for review before the date set forth in Rule .0211 of this Section, the 6 agency shall send a written request to the Commission. The request shall contain:

- 7 (1) the Title and Chapter of the Report;
- 8 (2) the reason for the request;
- 9 (3) if the report was already posted, a copy of the report and any public comments received;
- 10 (4) the date the report was originally scheduled for review; and
- 11 (5) the date that the agency seeks for Commission review.

12 (b) An agency seeking earlier review shall, on the date of submission of the request to the Commission, post notice
13 on its website and notify its interested persons mailing list maintained pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.2(d) of the meeting
14 date on which the Commission will review its request as set forth in Paragraph (e) of this Rule. The notice shall also 15 inform the public that the individuals may contact the Commission to object to the rescheduling.

16 (c) The Commission's decision to grant the request for earlier review shall be made on a case-by-case basis,
17 considering the following:

- 18 (1) the reason offered by the agency;
- 19 (2) the workload of the Commission; and
- 20 (3) arguments for or against the rescheduling by members of the public.

21 (d) If an agency designates a rule as unnecessary and places it on the current year schedule as set forth in G.S. 150B-
22 21.3A(e), it shall file written notice of this designation with the Commission. The Commission shall consider the 23 notice at its next regularly scheduled meeting.

24 (e) For any requests made pursuant to this Rule, the Commission shall consider a request filed on or before the ~~15th~~
25 20th day of the month at its meeting the next month and shall then place the rule or rules on the schedule. Following
26 the Commission's decision, the Commission shall notify the agency of the date the agency is required to submit the

1 26 NCAC 05 .0212 is proposed for adoption as follows:

2

3 26 NCAC 05 .0212 READOPTIONS

4 (a) When setting a readoption deadline pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.3A(d)(2), an agency shall, within 60 days of receipt
5 of the Commission's consultation request, submit to the Commission:

6 (1) written documentation of the agency's planned timeline for readoption, providing planned dates for 7 all steps required by G.S. 150B-21.2; and

8 (2) written documentation of any of the agency's rulemaking priorities that the agency determines to be 9 relevant to the timeline for readoption.

10 (b) To meet the readoption deadline established pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.3A(d)(2) and Paragraph (a) of this Rule, 11 an agency shall:

12 (1) adopt the rule, as defined in G.S. 150B-2(1a), by the date established pursuant to G.S. 150B-
13 21.3A(d)(2) and Paragraph (a) of this Rule; and 14 (2) file the rule with the Commission within 30 days of adoption.
