Sir;

My apologies for this late request. I just this evening learned about the hearing tomorrow on NCSBE's proposed temporary rules restricting Poll Observers and Election Officials.

If possible, please include me as a permitted speaker before the RRC. I am the President of the North Carolina Election INtegrity Team (NCEIT) and I am the leader for the organization training hundreds of volunteer poll observers statewide. My 501(c)4 organization is thoroughly familiar with and directly engaged in all aspects of voting and election integrity and we have unique perspectives about the impacts of these proposed rules on free and fair elections for the state.

I will keep my comments to less than 3 minutes in duration, if I am allowed to speak. I will be on the zoom call at 10:30.

Thank you in advance for your consideration of my request.

Warm Regards/

Jim Womack

Hello Bill,
I'd like to speak at the RRC meeting tomorrow. It is my understanding that there is an in-person option. Please let me know where the meeting will be held and how much time speakers will be given.

Thank you,

Dear Mr. Peaslee,

I am Andy Jackson with the John Locke Foundation.

I wish to speak via WebEx in opposition to the proposed changes to 08 NCAC 10B .0101 and 20 .0101 during the Rules Review Commission meeting tomorrow morning.

Thank you for your consideration.
