RE: Consultation pursuant to N.C.G.S. §12-3.1

Please accept this email as a consultation pursuant to N.C.G.S. §12-3.1 as to fees to be charged by the North Carolina Board of Law Examiners ("Board") which are set forth in the attached proposed rule amendments and as detailed below. Please note that the Board has not increased its exam fees since the year 2018. Please also note that these Rule changes are in the process of being reviewed by State Bar Council and the Chief Justice of the North Carolina Supreme Court.

Most of the fee increases are primarily the result of the anticipated move to a new examination commonly referred to as the "NextGen Uniform Bar Exam" in July of 2028. The NextGen Uniform Bar Exam is designed to assess the fitness of applicants seeking to become newly licensed attorneys in North Carolina. It is replacing the current version of the Uniform Bar Exam which is being phased out. The NextGen Uniform Bar Exam will utilize three types of questions: 1) integrated question sets that include both multiple choice, short answer, and medium answer questions based upon hypothetical fact scenarios; 2) longer performance tasks that focus on a closed universe of documents; and 3) multiple-choice questions. The exam seeks to test foundational concepts and principles and foundational skills, and to balance the skills needed in both litigation and transactional legal practices. The subject of "Decedents' Estates and Trusts" is not included in the Foundational Concepts and Principles of the NextGen Uniform Bar Exam but will be included in the Foundational Skills tested on the exam. In light of this, the North Carolina Board of Law Examiners will also require passage of a North Carolina examination component covering "Decedent's Estate and Trusts" within 12 months of passing the Next Gen Uniform Bar Exam before licensure which will require payment of a new fee.

The Board is amending its rules now in order to provide students entering law school this year with sufficient notice of the type of bar examination they will be required to take in North Carolina upon their graduation and the fees related thereto.

Separately there is a fee related to Servicemember applicants. In light of recent changes to the federal Servicemembers Civil Relief Act regarding portability of professional licenses, the Board has proposed an amended rule for relocated servicemembers and the spouses of relocated services, providing that such applicants who have a license to practice law in a State, or territory of the United States or the District of Columbia shall be granted a license to practice law without written examination, if the applicant satisfies the requirements contained in the proposed rule. This proposed rule eliminates the need for practice time in a reciprocal jurisdiction which is currently required for applicants seeking admission to practice law in North Carolina by comity (without examination).

The fees are set forth in the four attached Amended Rules 27 NCAC 03 .0404, 27 NCAC 03 .0501, 27 NCAC 03. 0504, and 27 NCAC 03. 0503.

- With regard to rule 27 NCAC 03 .0404:
  - This rule is entitled “Fees for General Applicants. The rule sets forth that beginning with applications to sit for the July 2028 bar examination, the application fees change as set forth below.
  - The application fee charged for the processing of applications by Board staff for those seeking to sit for examination is increased to one thousand twenty-five dollars ($1,025.00) for applicants not licensed in other jurisdictions (an increase from the existing fee of eight hundred fifty dollars ($850.00)
    - These fees are needed to offset the costs and time spent processing applications by Board staff and also conducting and grading examinations which expenses have increased as a result of inflation in the general economy. In addition, there will be new additional test material costs, new testing software costs, wireless internet connection costs, additional test proctor costs, and new double-grading requirement per applicant costs that will be incurred by the Board and need to be funded.
  - The application fee charged for the processing of applications by Board staff for those seeking to sit for examination for applicants that are or have been licensed in other jurisdictions is increased to one thousand eight hundred twenty-five dollars ($1,825.00) (an increase from the existing fee of one thousand six hundred fifty dollars ($1,650.00)).

- The processing is more expensive for those applications that need the additional background checks with employers and other jurisdictions which are necessitated when an applicant has been previously or is currently a licensed attorney in another jurisdiction.
- This rule also refers to a late fee of two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) which is the same as the existing late fee.
- Finally, the rule sets forth a fee of five hundred seventy-five ($575.00) for the submission of a supplemental application for reapplying after an unsuccessful exam attempt (an increase from the existing fee of four hundred dollars ($400.00)). These fees are to offset the costs and time spent processing the supplemental applications by Board staff to update prior background checks and also to grade and give the additional exam.
- The statutory authority for these fees is contained in N.C.G.S. § 84-21 and N.C.G.S. § 84-24.
- With regard to rule 27 NCAC 03.0501:
  - This rule is entitled “Requirements for General Applicants.”
  - This rule establishes a new fee for general applicants to also take and pass a North Carolina examination component on “Decedent’s Estates and Trusts” which exam will be offered four times a year. Two of these exam times will coincide with the NextGen Uniform Bar Exam offered in July and February each year and will not require an additional fee for an examination applicant. However, the other two exam offerings will be in May or November to offer flexibility to exam applicants. In order to fund those two “off cycle” examinations, any applicant for the May or November North Carolina examination component covering “Decedent’s Estates and Trusts” will be required under this rule to pay a fee of one hundred dollars ($100.00).
  - The statutory authority for these fees is contained in N.C.G.S. § 84-21 and N.C.G.S. § 84-24.
- With regard to rule 27 NCAC 03.0504:
  - This rule is entitled “Requirements for Transfer Applicants.”

- This rule establishes a new fee for transfer applicants to also pass a North Carolina examination component on “Decedent’s Estates and Trusts” which exam will be offered four times a year. Two of these exam times will coincide with the NextGen Uniform Bar Exam offered in July and February each year and will not require an additional fee for an examination applicant. However, the other two exam offerings will be in May or November to offer flexibility to exam applicants. In order to fund those two “off cycle” examinations any applicant for the May or November North Carolina examination component covering “Decedent’s Estates and Trusts” will be required under this rule to pay a fee of one hundred dollars ($100.00).
- The statutory authority for these fees is contained in N.C.G.S. § 84-21 and N.C.G.S. § 84-24.
- With regard to rule 27 NCAC 03. 0503:
  - This rule is entitled “Requirements for Relocated Servicemember and Spouse of Relocated Servicemember Applicants.”
  - This rule establishes a new application fee of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500.00) for relocated servicemember applicants. This is the same fee currently charged to applicants licensed in another jurisdiction seeking admission to practice law in North Carolina by transfer of UBE score. Pursuant to N.C.G.S. §84-24, all applicants seeking admission to practice law in North Carolina must possess the qualifications of character and general fitness requisite for an attorney and counselor-at-law. The Board conducts a comprehensive background investigation for every applicant to ensure the applicant possesses the requisite character and fitness. The investigation necessary for licensed servicemembers is similar to that needed for applicants seeking admission to practice law in North Carolina by transfer of UBE score and carries similar costs. Please note that while members of the military practicing law on a military base in North Carolina are required to be licensed to practice in a jurisdiction, they are not required to be licensed in North Carolina to do so. Recognizing the challenges faced by spouses of relocated servicemembers, there is no fee for spouses of relocated servicemembers. This new fee is not related to the move to the “NextGen Uniform Bar Exam” but instead is the result of recent changes to the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act.
  - The statutory authority for these fees is contained in N.C.G.S. § 84-21 and N.C.G.S. § 84-24.

- (7) if the applicant is or has been a licensed attorney, be in good standing in each state, territory of the United States, or the District of Columbia, in which the applicant is or has been licensed to practice law and not under any charges of misconduct while the application is pending before the Board.
  - (a) For purposes of this rule, an applicant is "in good standing" in a jurisdiction if:
    - (i) the applicant is an active member of the bar of the jurisdiction and the jurisdiction issues a certificate attesting to the applicant's good standing therein; or
